Part II - Share Capital and Rights

2. Share Capital

- a) The share capital of the Company is €540,000,000 divided into 750,000,000 Ordinary Shares of €0.32 each and 300,000,000 Non-Cumulative Preference Shares of €1 each ("Euro Preference Shares"), STG£100,000,000 divided into 100,000,000 Non-Cumulative Preference Shares of STG£1 each ("Sterling Preference Shares") and US$200,000,000 divided into 200,000,000 Non-Cumulative Preference Shares of US$1 each ("Dollar Preference Shares").

Sterling Preference Shares

- b) The rights attaching to the Sterling Preference Shares shall be as follows:-

(A) General

The Sterling Preference Shares shall rank pari passu inter se and with the Euro Preference Shares and the Dollar Preference Shares as regards the right to receive dividends and the rights on a winding up of, or other return of capital by, the Company. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 8 and subject as provided in paragraphs (b) (B) to (G) of this Article, the Sterling Preference Shares may be issued with such rights and privileges, and subject to such restrictions and limitations, as the Directors shall determine in the resolution approving the issue of such shares and in particular (but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing), the Directors may (without prejudice to the authority conferred by sub-paragraph (b) (D)(5) of this Article), pursuant to the authority given by the passing of the resolution to adopt this Article, consolidate and divide and/or sub-divide any Sterling Preference Shares into shares of a larger or smaller amount (and so that the provisions of Article 47 shall, where relevant, apply to any such consolidation, division or sub-division). Whenever the Directors have power under this Article to determine any of the rights, privileges, limitations or restrictions attached to any of the Sterling Preference Shares, the rights, privileges, limitations or restrictions so determined need not be the same as those attached to the Sterling Preference Shares which have then been allotted or issued. Without prejudice to the provisions of Article 8(c), each issue of Sterling Preference Shares carrying rights, privileges, limitations or restrictions that are not the same as those attached to the Sterling Preference Shares which have then been allotted or issued shall constitute a separate class of shares.

(B) Income

The Sterling Preference Shares shall (subject to the further provisions of this paragraph) entitle the Holders thereof (the "Sterling Preference Shareholders") to receive a non-cumulative preferential dividend (the "Preference Dividend") which shall be calculated at such annual rate (whether fixed or variable) and shall be payable on such dates and on such other terms and conditions as may be determined by the Directors prior to allotment thereof.

- (2) The following provisions shall apply in relation to any particular Sterling Preference Shares (in this paragraph the "Relevant Sterling Preference Shares") if so determined by the Directors prior to the allotment thereof:-

- a) the Relevant Sterling Preference Shares shall rank as regards the right to receive dividends pari passu with the Euro Preference Shares and the Dollar Preference Shares and with any additional preference shares created and issued pursuant to sub-paragraph (e) below and otherwise in priority to any Ordinary Shares in the capital of the Company;
- b) if, on any date on which an instalment of the Preference Dividend would fall to be paid under sub-paragraph (b) (B) (1) above on any Relevant Sterling Preference Shares, the distributable profits and distributable reserves of the Company are together insufficient to enable payment in full to be made of such instalment and, if applicable, of any instalments of dividends payable on such date on any other preference shares ranking pari passu with the Relevant Sterling Preference Shares as regards dividend, then none of the said instalments shall be paid. If it shall subsequently appear that any instalment of the Preference Dividend or of any such other preferential dividend which has been paid should not, in accordance with the provisions of this sub-paragraph, have been so paid, then, provided the Directors shall have acted in good faith, they shall not incur any liability for any loss which any shareholder may suffer in consequence of such payment having been made;

c) where any instalment of the Preference Dividend on any Relevant Sterling Preference Share is payable, the Directors shall, subject to sub-paragraph (b) above, resolve to make payment of such instalment in cash, provided however that such instalment shall not be payable in cash if, in the judgement of the Directors, after consultation with the Central Bank of Ireland, the payment of such instalment in cash would breach or cause a breach of the Central Bank of Ireland's capital adequacy requirements from time to time applicable to the Company;

d) subject to the right to be allotted additional Sterling Preference Shares in accordance with sub-paragraph (e) below, the Relevant Sterling Preference Shares shall carry no further right to participate in the profits and reserves of the Company other than the Preference Dividend and if on any occasion an instalment of the Preference Dividend is not paid in cash for the reasons described in sub-paragraph (b) or sub-paragraph (c) above, the Sterling Preference Shareholders shall have no claim in respect of such instalment;

e) (i) the provisions of this sub-paragraph shall apply where any instalment of the Preference Dividend payable on a particular date on the Relevant Sterling Preference Shares is, for the reasons specified in sub-paragraph (b) or sub-paragraph (c) above, not to be paid in cash and the amount (if any) standing to the credit of the profit and loss account of the Company together with the amount of the reserves of the Company available for the purpose are sufficient to enable the allotments of additional preference shares referred to in the further provisions of this sub-paragraph to be made in full;

(ii) for the purposes of this sub-paragraph:

"Relevant Shares" means Relevant Sterling Preference Shares and any preference shares of the Company carrying similar rights to those set out in this sub-paragraph (e) and ranking pari passu with the Relevant Sterling Preference Shares as regards dividend in respect of which an instalment of preference dividend which would have been payable on the same date as a Relevant Instalment (as herein defined) on Relevant Sterling Preference Shares, is not to be paid in cash; and

"Relevant Instalment" means an instalment of preference dividend which is not to be paid in cash on Relevant Shares on any occasion for the reasons specified in sub-paragraph (b) or sub-paragraph (c) above;

and, where a Member holds Relevant Shares of more than one class, the provisions of this sub-paragraph (e) shall be interpreted and applied separately in respect of each class of Relevant Shares held by him;

(iii) each Holder of Relevant Shares shall, on the date for payment of the Relevant Instalment, had such instalment been paid in cash, be allotted such additional nominal amount of preference shares of the class in question, credited as fully paid, as is equal to an amount which would have been paid to the Holder had such Relevant Instalment been paid in cash plus an amount equal to the associated tax credit to which the Holder would have been entitled had the Relevant Instalment been paid in cash. The Company shall not issue fractions of a preference share of any class ("Fractional Shares") on any such allotment of additional preference shares. In lieu of any Fractional Shares, each Holder of Relevant Shares otherwise entitled to receive a Fractional Share shall receive a payment in cash equal to such Holder's proportionate interests in the net proceeds from the sale or sales in the open market by the Company, on behalf of all such Holders, of the aggregate of the preference shares of the relevant class equal in nominal amount to the aggregate amount of all Fractional Shares of the relevant class otherwise payable as a dividend rounded down to the nearest integral multiple of the par value of such preference shares, provided that the Company shall not be obliged to make any such payment where the entitlement of the relevant Holder in respect of the class or classes of Relevant Shares held by him is less than STG£5, €5 or U.S.$5 (as the case may be). Such sale shall be effected promptly after the record date fixed for determining the Holders entitled to payment of the Preference Dividend. A Holder receiving an allotment of additional preference shares in terms of this sub-paragraph shall not be entitled to receive any part of the Relevant Instalment relating to Relevant Shares of that class in cash, or additional preference shares in accordance with sub-paragraphs (c)(B)(2)(e) and (d)(B)(2)(e) of this Article to the extent that the same may be applicable;

- (iv) for the purpose of paying up preference shares to be allotted on any occasion pursuant to this sub-paragraph (e), the Directors shall capitalise out of the sums standing to the credit of the profit and loss account of the Company and/or to the credit of the Company's reserve accounts available for the purpose, as the Directors may determine (including any reserve denominated in Euro and permitted by law to be so appropriated), a sum equal to the aggregate nominal amount of the additional preference shares then to be allotted and shall apply the same in paying up in full the appropriate amount of unissued preference shares of the class or classes in question. Any such capitalisation shall be deemed to be authorised by the resolution adopting this Article and the provisions of Article 125 shall apply mutatis mutandis to any such capitalisation;
- (v) the additional preference shares so allotted shall rank pari passu in all respects with the fully paid Relevant Shares of the same class then in issue save only as regards participation in the Relevant Instalment;
- (vi) the Sterling Preference Shares shall not confer the right to participate in any issue of shares on capitalisation of reserves except as provided in this sub-paragraph (e).
- (f) The Directors shall undertake and do such acts and things as they may consider necessary or expedient for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of sub-paragraph (e). In particular, but without limitation, the Directors shall maintain sufficient unissued share capital available and sufficient authority under Section 20 of the 1983 Act to enable additional preference shares to be allotted. If any additional preference shares falling to be allotted pursuant to such sub-paragraph cannot be allotted by reason of any insufficiency in the Company's authorised share capital or in the amount of relevant securities which the Directors are authorised to allot in accordance with Section 20 of the 1983 Act, the Directors shall convene a General Meeting to be held as soon as practicable, for the purpose of considering a resolution or resolutions effecting an appropriate increase in the authorised share capital and granting the Directors appropriate authority to allot relevant securities.

(C) Capital

- (1) On a winding up of, or other return of capital (other than on a redemption of shares of any class in the capital of the Company) by, the Company, the Sterling Preference Shareholders shall in respect of the Sterling Preference Shares held by them be entitled to receive in Sterling, out of the surplus assets available for distribution to the Company's Members, an amount equal to the amount paid up or credited as paid up on the Sterling Preference Shares (including any premium paid to the Company in respect thereof).
- (2) In addition to the amount repayable on the Sterling Preference Shares pursuant to sub-paragraph (1) above there shall be payable:
 - (a) a sum equal to the amount of any Preference Dividend which is due for payment after the date of commencement of the winding up or other return of capital but which is payable in respect of a period ending on or before such date and the amount of any Preference Dividend which would have been payable by the Company in accordance with paragraph (b) (B) of this Article in respect of the period commencing with the fixed dividend payment date which shall most recently have occurred prior to the winding up of the Company or the date of return of capital, as the case may be, and ending with the date of such return of capital, whether on a winding up or otherwise, as though such period had been one in relation to which an instalment of the Preference Dividend would have been payable pursuant to paragraph (b) (B), but subject always to the provisions of sub-paragraphs (2) (b), (c) and (d) of paragraph (b) (B); and
 - (b) subject thereto, such premium (if any) as may be determined by the Directors prior to allotment thereof (and so that the Directors may determine that such premium is payable only in specified circumstances and/or that such premium shall be of variable amount depending on the timing and circumstances of such return of capital).
- (3) The amounts payable or repayable under sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph (b) (C) in the event of a winding up of, or other return of capital (other than on a redemption of shares of any class in the capital of the Company) by, the Company, shall be so paid pari passu with any amounts payable or repayable in that event upon or in respect of any further preference shares of the Company ranking pari passu with the Sterling Preference Shares as regards repayment of capital, and shall be so paid in priority to any repayment of capital on any other class of shares of the Company. The Sterling Preference Shareholders shall not be entitled in respect of the Sterling Preference Shares held by them to any further or other right of participation in the assets of the Company (and Article 134 shall be construed accordingly).

(D) Redemption

- (1) Unless otherwise determined by the Directors either generally or in relation to any particular Sterling Preference Shares prior to allotment thereof, the Sterling Preference Shares shall, subject to the provisions of the Acts, be redeemable at the option of the Company. In the case of any particular Sterling Preference Shares which are to be so redeemable:
 - (a) such shares shall be redeemable at par together with the sum which would have been payable pursuant to paragraph (b) (C) of this Article (other than sub-paragraph (b) (C) (2) (b)) if the date fixed for redemption had been the date of a return of capital on a winding up of the Company;

- (b) such shares shall be redeemable during such period as the Directors shall prior to allotment thereof determine, commencing with the first date on which a dividend is payable on such shares or with such later date as the Directors shall prior to allotment thereof determine; and
 - (c) prior to allotment of such shares, the Directors shall determine whether the Company may redeem (i) all (but not merely some) of such shares or (ii) all or any of such shares, and the basis on which any necessary selection of such shares for redemption is to be made from time to time.
- (2) The Company shall give to the Holders of the Sterling Preference Shares to be redeemed not less than 30 days' and not more than 60 days' notice in writing of the date on which such redemption is to be effected. Such notice shall specify the redemption date and the place at which the certificates for such Sterling Preference Shares are to be presented for redemption and upon such date each of such Holders shall be bound to deliver to the Company at such place the certificates for such of those Sterling Preference Shares as are held by him. Upon such delivery, the Company shall pay to such Holder the amount due to him in respect of such redemption and shall cancel the certificates so delivered. If any such certificate includes any Sterling Preference Shares not redeemable on that occasion, a fresh certificate for such shares shall be issued to the Holder without charge upon cancellation of the existing certificate.
- (3) As from the date fixed for redemption, no Preference Dividend shall be payable on the Sterling Preference Shares to be redeemed except on any such shares in respect of which, upon due presentation of the certificate relating thereto, payment of the moneys due at such redemption shall be improperly refused, in which event, the Preference Dividend shall continue to accrue on and from the date fixed for redemption down to, but not including, the date of payment of such redemption moneys.
- (4) The receipt of the registered Holder for the time being of any Sterling Preference Shares or, in the case of joint registered Holders, the receipt of any of them for the moneys payable on redemption thereof shall constitute an absolute discharge to the Company in respect thereof.
- (5) Upon redemption of any Sterling Preference Shares, the Directors may (pursuant to the authority given by the passing of the resolution to adopt this Article) consolidate and divide and/or sub-divide the authorised preference share capital existing as a consequence of such redemption into shares of any other class of share capital into which the authorised share capital of the Company is or may at that time be divided of a like nominal amount (as nearly as may be) and in the same currency as the Sterling Preference Shares so redeemed or into unclassified shares of the same nominal amount and in the same currency as the Sterling Preference Shares so redeemed (and so that the provisions of Article 47 shall, where relevant, apply to any such consolidation and division or sub-division).

(E) Voting

- (1) The Sterling Preference Shareholders shall be entitled to receive notice of any General Meeting of the Company and a copy of every circular or other like document sent out by the Company to the Holders of Ordinary Shares and to attend any General Meeting of the Company but shall not, in respect of the Sterling Preference Shares, be entitled to speak or vote upon any resolution other than:-
 - (a) a resolution for winding up the Company; or
 - (b) a resolution varying, altering or abrogating any of the rights, privileges, limitations or restrictions attached to the Sterling Preference Shares;

unless at the date of such meeting the most recent instalment of the Preference Dividend due to be paid prior to such meeting shall not have been paid in cash in which event the Sterling Preference Shareholders shall be entitled to speak and vote on all resolutions proposed at such meeting.

For the avoidance of doubt, unless otherwise provided by its terms of issue and without prejudice to the rights attached to the Sterling Preference Shares to participate in any return of capital, the rights attached to any Sterling Preference Share shall not be deemed to be varied, altered or abrogated by a reduction in any share capital ranking as regards participation in the profits and assets of the Company pari passu with or after such Sterling Preference Shares or by any redemption of any such share capital, unless, in either of the foregoing cases, the then most recent dividend due to be paid on each class of preference share in the capital of the Company prior to such reduction or redemption shall not have been paid in cash.

 - (a) At a separate General Meeting of the Sterling Preference Shareholders, on a show of hands each Sterling Preference Shareholder present in person shall have one vote and on a poll each Sterling Preference Shareholder present in person or by proxy shall have one vote in respect of each STG£1 in nominal value of Sterling Preference Share capital held by him; and
 - (b) whenever the Sterling Preference Shareholders are entitled to vote at a General Meeting of the Company then, on a show of hands, each Sterling Preference Shareholder present in person shall have one vote and on a poll each Sterling Preference Shareholder present in person or by proxy shall have such number of votes in respect of each Sterling Preference Share held by him as the Directors may determine prior to the allotment of such shares.
 - (3) On a relevant requisition given in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraph (4) below, the Directors shall procure that an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company shall be convened forthwith.
 - (4) A "relevant requisition" is a requisition:-
 - (a) which has been signed by or on behalf of the Holders of a majority of the Sterling Preference Shares in issue at the date of such requisition; and
 - (b) which states the objects of the meeting to be convened;and a relevant requisition may consist of several documents in like form each signed by or on behalf of one or more of the requisitionists.
 - (5) The right to requisition a General Meeting of the Company contained in this paragraph (b) (E) shall be exercisable only at a time when the most recent instalment of the Preference Dividend due to be paid prior to such requisition shall not have been paid in cash.
 - (6) The Directors shall procure that, on any resolution at a General Meeting of the Company upon which the Sterling Preference Shareholders are entitled to vote and on each resolution at a separate General Meeting of the Sterling Preference Shareholders, a poll is demanded by the Chairman of such meeting in accordance with these Articles.
- (F) Restriction on Capitalisations and Issues of Securities

The following shall apply in relation to any particular Sterling Preference Shares (in this paragraph the "Relevant Sterling Preference Shares") if so determined by the Directors prior to the allotment thereof. Save with the written consent of the Holders of not less than 66²/₃% in nominal value of the Relevant Sterling Preference Shares, or with the sanction of a resolution passed at a separate General Meeting of the Holders of the Relevant Sterling Preference

Shares where the Holders of not less than 66²/₃% in nominal value of the Relevant Sterling Preference Shares have voted in favour of such resolution, the Directors shall not (i) pursuant to Articles 123 and 125 capitalise any part of the amounts available for distribution and referred to in such Articles if after such capitalisation the aggregate of such amounts would be less than a multiple, determined by the Directors prior to the allotment of the Relevant Sterling Preference Shares, of the aggregate amount of the annual dividends (exclusive of any associated tax credit) payable on the Sterling Preference Shares then in issue and any other preference shares then in issue ranking as regards the right to receive dividends or the rights on winding up of, or other return of capital by, the Company, pari passu with or in priority to the Relevant Sterling Preference Shares, or (ii) authorise or create, or increase the amount of, any shares of any class or any security convertible into the shares of any class ranking as regards the right to receive dividends or the rights on winding up of, or other return of capital by, the Company, in priority to the Relevant Sterling Preference Shares.

(G) Further Preference Shares

The Company may from time to time create and issue further preference shares ranking as regards participation in the profits and assets of the Company pari passu with the Sterling Preference Shares and so that any such further preference shares may be denominated in any currency and may carry as regards participation in the profits and assets of the Company rights identical in all respects to those attaching to the Sterling Preference Shares or rights differing therefrom in any respect and in particular, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing:-

- (1) the rate of dividend may differ and the dividend may be cumulative or non-cumulative;
- (2) the periods by reference to which dividend is payable may differ;
- (3) a premium may be payable on a return of capital or there may be no such premium;
- (4) the further preference shares may be redeemable at the option of the Company or the Holder or may be non-redeemable or may be redeemable at different dates and on different terms from those applying to the Sterling Preference Shares; and
- (5) the further preference shares may be convertible into Ordinary Shares or any other class of shares ranking as regards participation in the profits and assets of the Company pari passu with or after such Sterling Preference Shares, in each case on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the terms of issue thereof.

The creation or issue of, or the variation, alteration or abrogation of or addition to the rights, privileges, limitations or restrictions attaching to, any shares of the Company ranking after the Sterling Preference Shares as regards participation in the profits and assets of the Company and, provided that, on the date of such creation or issue, the most recent instalment of the dividend due to be paid on each class of preference share in the capital of the Company prior to such date shall have been paid in cash, the creation or issue of further preference shares ranking pari passu with the Sterling Preference Shares as provided for above, shall be deemed not to be a variation, alteration or abrogation of the rights, privileges, limitations or restrictions attached to the Sterling Preference Shares. If any further preference shares of the Company shall have been issued, then any subsequent variation, alteration or abrogation of or addition to the rights, privileges, limitations or restrictions attaching to any of such further preference shares shall be deemed not to be a variation, alteration or abrogation of the rights, privileges, limitations or restrictions attaching to the Sterling Preference Shares, provided that the rights attaching to such further preference shares thereafter shall be such that the creation and issue by the Company of further preference shares carrying those rights would have been permitted under this paragraph.

Euro Preference Shares

- (c) The rights attaching to the Euro Preference Shares shall be as follows:-

(A) General

The Euro Preference Shares shall rank pari passu inter se and with the Sterling Preference Shares and the Dollar Preference Shares as regards the right to receive dividends and the rights on a winding up of, or other return of capital by, the Company. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 8 and subject as provided in paragraphs (c) (B) to (G) of this Article, the Euro Preference Shares may be issued with such rights and privileges, and subject to such restrictions and limitations, as the Directors shall determine in the resolution approving the issue of such shares and in particular (but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing), the Directors may (without prejudice to the authority conferred by sub-paragraph (c) (D) (5) of this Article), pursuant to the authority given by the passing of the resolution to adopt this Article, consolidate and divide and/or sub-divide any Euro Preference Shares into shares of a larger or smaller amount (and so that the provisions of Article 47 shall, where relevant, apply to any such consolidation, division or sub-division). Whenever the Directors have power under this Article to determine any of the rights, privileges, limitations or restrictions attached to any of the Euro Preference Shares, the rights, privileges, limitations or restrictions so determined need not be the same as those attached to the Euro Preference Shares which have then been allotted or issued. Without prejudice to the provisions of Article 8(d), each issue of Euro Preference Shares carrying rights, privileges, limitations or restrictions that are not the same as those attached to the Euro Preference Shares which have then been allotted or issued shall constitute a separate class of shares.

(B) Income

- (1) The Euro Preference Shares shall (subject to the further provisions of this paragraph) entitle the Holders thereof (the "Euro Preference Shareholders") to receive a non-cumulative preferential dividend (the "Preference Dividend"), which shall be calculated at such annual rate (whether fixed or variable) and shall be payable on such dates and on such other terms and conditions as may be determined by the Directors prior to allotment thereof.
- (2) The following provisions shall apply in relation to any particular Euro Preference Shares (in this paragraph the "Relevant Euro Preference Shares") if so determined by the Directors prior to the allotment thereof:-
 - (a) the Relevant Euro Preference Shares shall rank as regards the right to receive dividends pari passu with the Sterling Preference Shares and the Dollar Preference Shares and with any additional preference shares created and issued pursuant to sub-paragraph (e) below and otherwise in priority to any Ordinary Shares in the capital of the Company;
 - (b) if, on any date on which an instalment of the Preference Dividend would fall to be paid under sub-paragraph (c) (B) (1) above on any Relevant Euro Preference Shares, the distributable profits and distributable reserves of the Company are together insufficient to enable payment in full to be made of such instalment and, if applicable, of any instalments of dividends payable on such date on any other preference shares ranking pari passu with the Relevant Euro Preference Shares as regards dividend, then none of the said instalments shall be paid. If it shall subsequently appear that any instalment of the Preference Dividend or of any such other preferential dividend which has been paid should not, in accordance with the provisions of this sub-paragraph, have been so paid, then, provided the Directors shall have acted in good faith, they shall not incur any liability for any loss which any shareholder may suffer in consequence of such payment having been made;
 - (c) where any instalment of the Preference Dividend on any Relevant Euro Preference Shares is payable, the Directors shall, subject to sub-paragraph (b) above, resolve to make payment of such instalment in cash, provided however that such instalment shall not be payable in cash if, in the judgement of the Directors, after consultation with the Central Bank of Ireland, the payment of such instalment in cash would breach or cause a breach of the Central Bank of Ireland's capital adequacy requirements from time to time applicable to the Company;

- (d) subject to the right to be allotted additional Euro Preference Shares in accordance with sub-paragraph (e) below, the Relevant Euro Preference Shares shall carry no further right to participate in the profits and reserves of the Company other than the Preference Dividend and if on any occasion an instalment of the Preference Dividend is not paid in cash for the reasons described in sub-paragraph (b) or sub-paragraph (c) above, the Euro Preference Shareholders shall have no claim in respect of such instalment;
- (e) (i) the provisions of this sub-paragraph shall apply where any instalment of the Preference Dividend payable on a particular date on the Relevant Euro Preference Shares is, for the reasons specified in sub-paragraph (b) or sub-paragraph (c) above, not to be paid in cash and the amount (if any) standing to the credit of the profit and loss account of the Company together with the amount of the reserves of the Company available for the purpose are sufficient to enable the allotments of additional preference shares referred to in the further provisions of this sub-paragraph to be made in full;
- (ii) for the purposes of this sub-paragraph:
- "Relevant Shares" means Relevant Euro Preference Shares and any preference shares of the Company carrying similar rights to those set out in this sub-paragraph (e) and ranking pari passu with the Relevant Euro Preference Shares as regards dividend in respect of which an instalment of preference dividend which would have been payable on the same date as a Relevant Instalment (as herein defined) on Relevant Euro Preference Shares is not to be paid in cash; and
- "Relevant Instalment" means an instalment of preference dividend which is not to be paid in cash on Relevant Shares on any occasion for the reasons specified in sub-paragraph (b) or sub-paragraph (c) above;
- and, where a Member holds Relevant Shares of more than one class, the provisions of this sub-paragraph (e) shall be interpreted and applied separately in respect of each class of Relevant Shares held by him;
- (iii) each Holder of Relevant Shares shall, on the date for payment of the Relevant Instalment, had such instalment been paid in cash, be allotted such additional nominal amount of preference shares of the class in question, credited as fully paid, as is equal to an amount which would have been paid to the Holder had such Relevant Instalment been paid in cash plus an amount equal to the associated tax credit to which the Holder would have been entitled had the Relevant Instalment been paid in cash. The Company shall not issue fractions of a preference share of any class ("Fractional Shares") on any such allotment of additional preference shares. In lieu of any Fractional Shares, each Holder of Relevant Shares otherwise entitled to receive a Fractional Share shall receive a payment in cash equal to such Holder's proportionate interests in the net proceeds from the sale or sales in the open market by the Company, on behalf of all such Holders, of the aggregate of the preference shares of the relevant class equal in nominal amount to the aggregate amount of all Fractional Shares of the relevant class otherwise payable as a dividend rounded down to the nearest integral multiple of the par value of such preference shares, provided that the Company shall not be obliged to make any such payment where the entitlement of the relevant Holder in respect of the class or classes of Relevant Shares held by him is less than STG£5, €5 or U.S.$5 (as the case may be). Such sale shall be effected promptly after the record date fixed for determining the Holders entitled to payment of the Preference Dividend. A Holder receiving an allotment of additional preference shares in terms of this sub-paragraph shall not be entitled to receive any part of the Relevant Instalment relating to Relevant Shares of that class in cash, or additional preference shares in accordance with sub-paragraphs (b)(B)(2)(e) and (d)(B)(2)(e) of this Article to the extent that the same may be applicable;

- (iv) for the purpose of paying up preference shares to be allotted on any occasion pursuant to this sub-paragraph (e), the Directors shall capitalise out of the sums standing to the credit of the profit and loss account of the Company and/or to the credit of the Company's reserve accounts available for the purpose, as the Directors may determine a sum equal to the aggregate nominal amount of the additional preference shares then to be allotted and shall apply the same in paying up in full the appropriate amount of unissued preference shares of the class or classes in question. Any such capitalisation shall be deemed to be authorised by the resolution adopting this Article and the provisions of Article 125 shall apply mutatis mutandis to any such capitalisation;
- (v) the additional preference shares so allotted shall rank pari passu in all respects with the fully paid Relevant Shares of the same class then in issue save only as regards participation in the Relevant Instalment;
- (vi) the Euro Preference Shares shall not confer the right to participate in any issue of shares on capitalisation of reserves except as provided in this sub-paragraph (e).
- (f) The Directors shall undertake and do such acts and things as they may consider necessary or expedient for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of sub-paragraph (e). In particular, but without limitation, the Directors shall maintain sufficient unissued share capital available and sufficient authority under Section 20 of the 1983 Act to enable additional preference shares to be allotted. If any additional preference shares falling to be allotted pursuant to such sub-paragraph cannot be allotted by reason of any insufficiency in the Company's authorised share capital or in the amount of relevant securities which the Directors are authorised to allot in accordance with Section 20 of the 1983 Act, the Directors shall convene a General Meeting to be held as soon as practicable, for the purpose of considering a resolution or resolutions effecting an appropriate increase in the authorised share capital and granting the Directors appropriate authority to allot relevant securities.

(C) Capital

- (1) On a winding up of, or other return of capital (other than on a redemption of shares of any class in the capital of the Company) by, the Company, the Euro Preference Shareholders shall in respect of the Euro Preference Shares held by them be entitled to receive in Irish Pounds and/or Euro, out of the surplus assets available for distribution to the Company's Members, an amount equal to the amount paid up or credited as paid up on the Euro Preference Shares (including any premium paid to the Company in respect thereof).
- (2) In addition to the amount repayable on the Euro Preference Shares pursuant to sub-paragraph (1) above there shall be payable:

- (a) a sum equal to the amount of any Preference Dividend which is due for payment after the date of commencement of the winding up or other return of capital but which is payable in respect of a period ending on or before such date and the amount of any Preference Dividend which would have been payable by the Company in accordance with paragraph (c) (B) of this Article in respect of the period commencing with the fixed dividend payment date which shall most recently have occurred prior to the winding up of the Company or the date of return of capital, as the case may be, and ending with the date of such return of capital, whether on a winding up or otherwise, as though such period had been one in relation to which an instalment of the Preference Dividend would have been payable pursuant to paragraph (c) (B), but subject always to the provisions of sub-paragraphs (2) (b), (c) and (d) of paragraph (c) (B); and
 - (b) subject thereto, such premium (if any) as may be determined by the Directors prior to allotment thereof (and so that the Directors may determine that such premium is payable only in specified circumstances and/or that such premium shall be of variable amount depending on the timing and circumstances of such return of capital).
- (3) The amounts payable or repayable under sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph (c) (C) in the event of a winding up of, or other return of capital (other than on a redemption of shares of any class in the capital of the Company) by, the Company, shall be so paid pari passu with any amounts payable or repayable in that event upon or in respect of any further preference shares of the Company ranking pari passu with the Euro Preference Shares as regards repayment of capital, and shall be so paid in priority to any repayment of capital on any other class of shares of the Company. The Euro Preference Shareholders shall not be entitled in respect of the Euro Preference Shares held by them to any further or other right of participation in the assets of the Company (and Article 134 shall be construed accordingly).

(D) Redemption

- (1) Unless otherwise determined by the Directors either generally or in relation to any particular Euro Preference Shares prior to allotment thereof, the Euro Preference Shares shall, subject to the provisions of the Acts, be redeemable at the option of the Company. In the case of any particular Euro Preference Shares which are to be so redeemable:
 - (a) such shares shall be redeemable at par together with the sum which would have been payable pursuant to paragraph (c) (C) of this Article (other than sub-paragraph (c) (C) (2) (b)) if the date fixed for redemption had been the date of a return of capital on a winding up of the Company;
 - (b) such shares shall be redeemable during such period as the Directors shall prior to allotment thereof determine, commencing with the first date on which a dividend is payable on such shares or with such later date as the Directors shall prior to allotment thereof determine; and
 - (c) prior to allotment of such shares, the Directors shall determine whether the Company may redeem (i) all (but not merely some) of such shares or (ii) all or any of such shares, and the basis on which any necessary selection of such shares for redemption is to be made from time to time.
- (2) The Company shall give to the Holders of the Euro Preference Shares to be redeemed not less than 30 days' and not more than 60 days' notice in writing of the date on which such redemption is to be effected. Such notice shall specify the redemption date and the place at which the certificates for such Euro Preference Shares are to be presented for redemption and upon such date each of such Holders shall be bound to deliver to the Company at such place the certificates for such of those Euro Preference Shares as are held by him. Upon such delivery, the Company shall pay to such Holder the amount due to him in respect of such redemption and shall cancel the certificates so delivered. If any such certificate includes any Euro Preference Shares not redeemable on that occasion, a fresh certificate for such shares shall be issued to the Holder without charge upon cancellation of the existing certificate.

- (3) As from the date fixed for redemption, no Preference Dividend shall be payable on the Euro Preference Shares to be redeemed except on any such shares in respect of which, upon due presentation of the certificate relating thereto, payment of the moneys due at such redemption shall be improperly refused, in which event, the Preference Dividend shall continue to accrue on and from the date fixed for redemption down to, but not including, the date of payment of such redemption moneys.
- (4) The receipt of the registered Holder for the time being of any Euro Preference Shares or, in the case of joint registered Holders, the receipt of any of them for the moneys payable on redemption thereof shall constitute an absolute discharge to the Company in respect thereof.
- (5) Upon redemption of any Euro Preference Shares, the Directors may (pursuant to the authority given by the passing of the resolution to adopt this Article) consolidate and divide and/or sub-divide the authorised preference share capital existing as a consequence of such redemption into shares of any other class of share capital into which the authorised share capital of the Company is or may at that time be divided of a like nominal amount (as nearly as may be) and in the same currency as the Euro Preference Shares so redeemed or into unclassified shares of the same nominal amount and in the same currency as the Euro Preference Shares so redeemed (and so that the provisions of Article 47 shall, where relevant, apply to any such consolidation and division or sub-division).

(E) Voting

- (1) The Euro Preference Shareholders shall be entitled to receive notice of any General Meeting of the Company and a copy of every circular or other like document sent out by the Company to the Holders of Ordinary Shares and to attend any General Meeting of the Company but shall not, in respect of the Euro Preference Shares, be entitled to speak or vote upon any resolution other than:-
 - (a) a resolution for winding up the Company; or
 - (b) a resolution varying, altering or abrogating any of the rights, privileges, limitations or restrictions attached to the Euro Preference Shares;

unless at the date of such meeting the most recent instalment of the Preference Dividend due to be paid prior to such meeting shall not have been paid in cash in which event the Euro Preference Shareholders shall be entitled to speak and vote on all resolutions proposed at such meeting.

For the avoidance of doubt, unless otherwise provided by its terms of issue and without prejudice to the rights attached to the Euro Preference Shares to participate in any return of capital, the rights attached to any Euro Preference Share shall not be deemed to be varied, altered or abrogated by a reduction in any share capital ranking as regards participation in the profits and assets of the Company pari passu with or after such Euro Preference Shares or by any redemption of any such share capital, unless, in either of the foregoing cases, the then most recent dividend due to be paid on each class of preference share in the capital of the Company prior to such reduction or redemption shall not have been paid in cash.

- (2) (a) At a separate General Meeting of the Euro Preference Shareholders, on a show of hands each Euro Preference Shareholder present in person shall have one vote and on a poll each Euro Preference Shareholder present in person or by proxy shall have one vote in respect of each €1 in nominal value of Euro Preference Share capital held by him; and

- (b) whenever the Euro Preference Shareholders are entitled to vote at a General Meeting of the Company then, on a show of hands, each Euro Preference Shareholder present in person shall have one vote and on a poll each Euro Preference Shareholder present in person or by proxy shall have such number of votes in respect of each Euro Preference Share held by him as the Directors may determine prior to the allotment of such shares.
- (3) On a relevant requisition given in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraph (4) below, the Directors shall procure that an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company shall be convened forthwith.
- (4) A "relevant requisition" is a requisition:-
 - (a) which has been signed by or on behalf of the Holders of a majority of the Euro Preference Shares in issue at the date of such requisition; and
 - (b) which states the objects of the meeting to be convened;and a relevant requisition may consist of several documents in like form each signed by or on behalf of one or more of the requisitionists.
- (5) The right to requisition a General Meeting of the Company contained in this paragraph (c) (E) shall be exercisable only at a time when the most recent instalment of the Preference Dividend due to be paid prior to such requisition shall not have been paid in cash.
- (6) The Directors shall procure that, on any resolution at a General Meeting of the Company upon which the Euro Preference Shareholders are entitled to vote and on each resolution at a separate General Meeting of the Euro Preference Shareholders, a poll is demanded by the Chairman of such meeting in accordance with these Articles.

(F) Restriction on Capitalisations and Issues of Securities

The following shall apply in relation to any particular Euro Preference Shares (in this paragraph the "Relevant Euro Preference Shares") if so determined by the Directors prior to the allotment thereof. Save with the written consent of the Holders of not less than 66²/₃% in nominal value of the Relevant Euro Preference Shares, or with the sanction of a resolution passed at a separate General Meeting of the Holders of the Relevant Euro Preference Shares where the Holders of not less than 66²/₃% in nominal value of the Relevant Euro Preference Shares have voted in favour of such resolution, the Directors shall not (i) pursuant to Articles 123 and 125 capitalise any part of the amounts available for distribution and referred to in such Articles if after such capitalisation the aggregate of such amounts would be less than a multiple, determined by the Directors prior to the allotment of the Relevant Euro Preference Shares, of the aggregate amount of the annual dividends (exclusive of any associated tax credit) payable on the Euro Preference Shares then in issue and any other preference shares then in issue ranking as regards the right to receive dividends or the rights on winding up of, or other return of capital by, the Company, pari passu with or in priority to the Relevant Euro Preference Shares, or (ii) authorise or create, or increase the amount of, any shares of any class or any security convertible into the shares of any class ranking as regards the right to receive dividends or the rights on winding up of, or other return of capital by, the Company, in priority to the Relevant Euro Preference Shares.

(G) Further Preference Shares

The Company may from time to time create and issue further preference shares ranking as regards participation in the profits and assets of the Company pari passu with the Euro Preference Shares and so that any such further preference shares may be denominated in any currency and may carry as regards participation in the profits and assets of the Company rights identical in all respects to those attaching to the Euro Preference Shares or rights differing therefrom in any respect and in particular, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing:-

- (1) the rate of dividend may differ and the dividend may be cumulative or non-cumulative;
- (2) the periods by reference to which dividend is payable may differ;
- (3) a premium may be payable on a return of capital or there may be no such premium;
- (4) the further preference shares may be redeemable at the option of the Company or the Holder or may be non-redeemable or may be redeemable at different dates and on different terms from those applying to the Euro Preference Shares; and
- (5) the further preference shares may be convertible into Ordinary Shares or any other class of shares ranking as regards participation in the profits and assets of the Company pari passu with or after such Euro Preference Shares, in each case on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the terms of issue thereof.

The creation or issue of, or the variation, alteration or abrogation of or addition to the rights, privileges, limitations or restrictions attaching to, any shares of the Company ranking after the Euro Preference Shares as regards participation in the profits and assets of the Company and, provided that, on the date of such creation or issue, the most recent instalment of the dividend due to be paid on each class of preference share in the capital of the Company prior to such date shall have been paid in cash, the creation or issue of further preference shares ranking pari passu with the Euro Preference Shares as provided for above, shall be deemed not to be a variation, alteration or abrogation of the rights, privileges, limitations or restrictions attached to the Euro Preference Shares. If any further preference shares of the Company shall have been issued, then any subsequent variation, alteration or abrogation of or addition to the rights, privileges, limitations or restrictions attaching to any of such further preference shares shall be deemed not to be a variation, alteration or abrogation of the rights, privileges, limitations or restrictions attaching to the Euro Preference Shares, provided that the rights attaching to such further preference shares thereafter shall be such that the creation and issue by the Company of further preference shares carrying those rights would have been permitted under this paragraph.

Dollar Preference Shares

(d) The rights attaching to the Dollar Preference Shares shall be as follows:-

(A) General

The Dollar Preference Shares shall rank pari passu inter se and with the Sterling Preference Shares and the Euro Preference Shares as regards the right to receive dividends and the rights on a winding up of, or other return of capital by, the Company. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 8 and subject as provided in paragraphs (d) (B) to (G) of this Article, the Dollar Preference Shares may be issued with such rights and privileges, and subject to such restrictions and limitations, as the Directors shall determine in the resolution approving the issue of such shares and in particular (but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing), the Directors may (without prejudice to the authority conferred by sub-paragraph (d) (D) (5) of this Article), pursuant to the authority given by the passing of the resolution to adopt this Article, consolidate and divide and/or sub-divide any Dollar Preference Shares into shares of a larger or smaller amount (and so that the provisions of Article 47 shall, where relevant, apply to any such consolidation, division or sub-division). Whenever the Directors have power under this Article to determine any of the rights, privileges, limitations or restrictions attached to any of the Dollar Preference Shares, the rights, privileges, limitations or restrictions so determined need not be the same as those attached to the Dollar Preference Shares which have then been allotted or issued.

Without prejudice to the provisions of Article 8(e), each issue of Dollar Preference Shares carrying rights, privileges, limitations or restrictions that are not the same as those attached to the Dollar Preference Shares which have then been allotted or issued shall constitute a separate class of shares.

(B) Income

- (1) The Dollar Preference Shares shall (subject to the further provisions of this paragraph) entitle the Holders thereof (the "Dollar Preference Shareholders") to receive a non-cumulative preferential dividend (the "Preference Dividend"), which shall be calculated at such annual rate (whether fixed or variable) and shall be payable on such dates and on such other terms and conditions as may be determined by the Directors prior to allotment thereof.
- (2) The following provisions shall apply in relation to any particular Dollar Preference Shares (in this paragraph the "Relevant Dollar Preference Shares") if so determined by the Directors prior to the allotment thereof:-
 - (a) the Relevant Dollar Preference Shares shall rank as regards the right to receive dividends pari passu with the Sterling Preference Shares and the Euro Preference Shares and with any additional preference shares created and issued pursuant to sub-paragraph (e) below and otherwise in priority to any Ordinary Shares in the capital of the Company;
 - (b) if, on any date on which an instalment of the Preference Dividend would fall to be paid under sub-paragraph (d) (B) (1) above on any Relevant Dollar Preference Shares, the distributable profits and distributable reserves of the Company are together insufficient to enable payment in full to be made of such instalment and, if applicable, of any instalments of dividends payable on such date on any other preference shares ranking pari passu with the Relevant Dollar Preference Shares as regards dividend, then none of the said instalments shall be paid. If it shall subsequently appear that any instalment of the Preference Dividend or of any such other preferential dividend which has been paid should not, in accordance with the provisions of this sub-paragraph, have been so paid, then, provided the Directors shall have acted in good faith, they shall not incur any liability for any loss which any shareholder may suffer in consequence of such payment having been made;
 - (c) where any instalment of the Preference Dividend on any Relevant Dollar Preference Shares is payable, the Directors shall, subject to sub-paragraph (b) above, resolve to make payment of such instalment in cash, provided however that such instalment shall not be payable in cash if, in the judgement of the Directors, after consultation with the Central Bank of Ireland, the payment of such instalment in cash would breach or cause a breach of the Central Bank of Ireland's capital adequacy requirements from time to time applicable to the Company;
 - (d) subject to the right to be allotted additional Dollar Preference Shares in accordance with sub-paragraph (e) below, the Relevant Dollar Preference Shares shall carry no further right to participate in the profits and reserves of the Company other than the Preference Dividend and if on any occasion an instalment of the Preference Dividend is not paid in cash for the reasons described in sub-paragraph (b) or sub-paragraph (c) above, the Dollar Preference Shareholders shall have no claim in respect of such instalment;
 - (e) (i) the provisions of this sub-paragraph shall apply where any instalment of the Preference Dividend payable on a particular date on the Relevant Dollar Preference Shares is, for the reasons specified in sub-paragraph (b) or sub-paragraph (c) above, not to be paid in cash and the amount (if any) standing to the credit of the profit and loss account of the Company together with the amount of the reserves of the Company available for the purpose are sufficient to enable the allotments of additional preference shares referred to in the further provisions of this sub-paragraph to be made in full;

(ii) for the purposes of this sub-paragraph:

"Relevant Shares" means Relevant Dollar Preference Shares and any preference shares of the Company carrying similar rights to those set out in this sub-paragraph (e) and ranking pari passu with the Relevant Dollar Preference Shares as regards dividend in respect of which an instalment of preference dividend which would have been payable on the same date as a Relevant Instalment (as herein defined) on Relevant Dollar Preference Shares is not to be paid in cash; and

"Relevant Instalment" means an instalment of preference dividend which is not to be paid in cash on Relevant Shares on any occasion for the reasons specified in sub-paragraph (b) or sub-paragraph (c) above;

and, where a Member holds Relevant Shares of more than one class, the provisions of this sub-paragraph (e) shall be interpreted and applied separately in respect of each class of Relevant Shares held by him;

(iii) each Holder of Relevant Shares shall, on the date for payment of the Relevant Instalment, had such instalment been paid in cash, be allotted such additional nominal amount of preference shares of the class in question, credited as fully paid, as is equal to an amount which would have been paid to the Holder had such Relevant Instalment been paid in cash plus an amount equal to the associated tax credit to which the Holder would have been entitled had the Relevant Instalment been paid in cash. The Company shall not issue fractions of a preference share of any class ("Fractional Shares") on any such allotment of additional preference shares. In lieu of any Fractional Shares, each Holder of Relevant Shares otherwise entitled to receive a Fractional Share shall receive a payment in cash equal to such Holder's proportionate interests in the net proceeds from the sale or sales in the open market by the Company, on behalf of all such Holders, of the aggregate of the preference shares of the relevant class equal in nominal amount to the aggregate amount of all Fractional Shares of the relevant class otherwise payable as a dividend rounded down to the nearest integral multiple of the par value of such preference shares, provided that the Company shall not be obliged to make any such payment where the entitlement of the relevant Holder in respect of the class or classes of Relevant Shares held by him is less than STG£5, €5 or U.S.$5 (as the case may be). Such sale shall be effected promptly after the record date fixed for determining the Holders entitled to payment of the Preference Dividend. A Holder receiving an allotment of additional preference shares in terms of this sub-paragraph shall not be entitled to receive any part of the Relevant Instalment relating to Relevant Shares of that class in cash, or additional preference shares in accordance with sub-paragraphs (b)(B)(2)(e) and (c)(B)(2)(e) of this Article to the extent that the same may be applicable;

(iv) for the purpose of paying up preference shares to be allotted on any occasion pursuant to this sub-paragraph (e), the Directors shall capitalise out of the sums standing to the credit of the profit and loss account of the Company and/or to the credit of the Company's reserve accounts available for the purpose, as the Directors may determine (including any reserve denominated in Irish Pounds and/or Euro and permitted by law to be so appropriated), a sum equal to the aggregate nominal amount of the additional preference shares then to be allotted and shall apply the same in paying up in full the appropriate amount of unissued preference shares of the class or classes in question. Any such capitalisation shall be deemed to be authorised by the resolution adopting this Article and the provisions of Article 125 shall apply mutatis mutandis to any such capitalisation;

- (v) the additional preference shares so allotted shall rank pari passu in all respects with the fully paid Relevant Shares of the same class then in issue save only as regards participation in the Relevant Instalment;
 - (vi) the Dollar Preference Shares shall not confer the right to participate in any issue of shares on capitalisation of reserves except as provided in this sub-paragraph (e).
- (f) The Directors shall undertake and do such acts and things as they may consider necessary or expedient for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of sub-paragraph (e). In particular, but without limitation, the Directors shall maintain sufficient unissued share capital available and sufficient authority under Section 20 of the 1983 Act to enable additional preference shares to be allotted. If any additional preference shares falling to be allotted pursuant to such sub-paragraph cannot be allotted by reason of any insufficiency in the Company's authorised share capital or in the amount of relevant securities which the Directors are authorised to allot in accordance with Section 20 of the 1983 Act, the Directors shall convene a General Meeting to be held as soon as practicable, for the purpose of considering a resolution or resolutions effecting an appropriate increase in the authorised share capital and granting the Directors appropriate authority to allot relevant securities.

(C) Capital

- (1) On a winding up of, or other return of capital (other than on a redemption of shares of any class in the capital of the Company) by, the Company, the Dollar Preference Shareholders shall in respect of the Dollar Preference Shares held by them be entitled to receive in U.S. Dollars, out of the surplus assets available for distribution to the Company's Members, an amount equal to the amount paid up or credited as paid up on the Dollar Preference Shares (including any premium paid to the Company in respect thereof).
- (2) In addition to the amount repayable on the Dollar Preference Shares pursuant to sub-paragraph (1) above there shall be payable:
 - (a) a sum equal to the amount of any Preference Dividend which is due for payment after the date of commencement of the winding up or other return of capital but which is payable in respect of a period ending on or before such date and the amount of any Preference Dividend which would have been payable by the Company in accordance with paragraph (d) (B) of this Article in respect of the period commencing with the fixed dividend payment date which shall most recently have occurred prior to the winding up of the Company or the date of return of capital, as the case may be, and ending with the date of such return of capital, whether on a winding up or otherwise, as though such period had been one in relation to which an instalment of the Preference Dividend would have been payable pursuant to paragraph (d) (B), but subject always to the provisions of sub-paragraphs (2) (b), (c) and (d) of paragraph (d) (B); and

- (b) subject thereto, such premium (if any) as may be determined by the Directors prior to allotment thereof (and so that the Directors may determine that such premium is payable only in specified circumstances and/or that such premium shall be of variable amount depending on the timing and circumstances of such return of capital).
- (3) The amounts payable or repayable under sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph (d) (C) in the event of a winding up of, or other return of capital (other than on a redemption of shares of any class in the capital of the Company) by, the Company, shall be so paid pari passu with any amounts payable or repayable in that event upon or in respect of any further preference shares of the Company ranking pari passu with the Dollar Preference Shares as regards repayment of capital, and shall be so paid in priority to any repayment of capital on any other class of shares of the Company. The Dollar Preference Shareholders shall not be entitled in respect of the Dollar Preference Shares held by them to any further or other right of participation in the assets of the Company (and Article 134 shall be construed accordingly).

(D) Redemption

- (1) Unless otherwise determined by the Directors either generally or in relation to any particular Dollar Preference Shares prior to allotment thereof, the Dollar Preference Shares shall, subject to the provisions of the Acts, be redeemable at the option of the Company. In the case of any particular Dollar Preference Shares which are to be so redeemable:
 - (a) such shares shall be redeemable at par together with the sum which would have been payable pursuant to paragraph (d) (C) of this Article (other than sub-paragraph (d) (C) (2) (b)) if the date fixed for redemption had been the date of a return of capital on a winding up of the Company;
 - (b) such shares shall be redeemable during such period as the Directors shall prior to allotment thereof determine, commencing with the first date on which a dividend is payable on such shares or with such later date as the Directors shall prior to allotment thereof determine; and
 - (c) prior to allotment of such shares, the Directors shall determine whether the Company may redeem (i) all (but not merely some) of such shares or (ii) all or any of such shares, and the basis on which any necessary selection of such shares for redemption is to be made from time to time.
- (2) The Company shall give to the Holders of the Dollar Preference Shares to be redeemed not less than 30 days' and not more than 60 days' notice in writing of the date on which such redemption is to be effected. Such notice shall specify the redemption date and the place at which the certificates for such Dollar Preference Shares are to be presented for redemption and upon such date each of such Holders shall be bound to deliver to the Company at such place the certificates for such of those Dollar Preference Shares as are held by him. Upon such delivery, the Company shall pay to such Holder the amount due to him in respect of such redemption and shall cancel the certificates so delivered. If any such certificate includes any Dollar Preference Shares not redeemable on that occasion, a fresh certificate for such shares shall be issued to the Holder without charge upon cancellation of the existing certificate.
- (3) As from the date fixed for redemption, no Preference Dividend shall be payable on the Dollar Preference Shares to be redeemed except on any such shares in respect of which, upon due presentation of the certificate relating thereto, payment of the moneys due at such redemption shall be improperly refused, in which event, the Preference Dividend shall continue to accrue on and from the date fixed for redemption down to, but not including, the date of payment of such redemption moneys.

- (4) The receipt of the registered Holder for the time being of any Dollar Preference Shares or, in the case of joint registered Holders, the receipt of any of them for the moneys payable on redemption thereof shall constitute an absolute discharge to the Company in respect thereof.
- (5) Upon redemption of any Dollar Preference Share, the Directors may (pursuant to the authority given by the passing of the resolution to adopt this Article) consolidate and divide and/or sub-divide the authorised preference share capital existing as a consequence of such redemption into shares of any other class of share capital into which the authorised share capital of the Company is or may at that time be divided of a like nominal amount (as nearly as may be) and in the same currency as the Dollar Preference Shares so redeemed or into unclassified shares of the same nominal amount and in the same currency as the Dollar Preference Shares so redeemed (and so that the provisions of Article 47 shall, where relevant, apply to any such consolidation and division or sub-division).

(E) Voting

- (1) The Dollar Preference Shareholders shall be entitled to receive notice of any General Meeting of the Company and a copy of every circular or other like document sent out by the Company to the Holders of Ordinary Shares and to attend any General Meeting of the Company but shall not, in respect of the Dollar Preference Shares, be entitled to speak or vote upon any resolution other than:-
 - (a) a resolution for winding up the Company; or
 - (b) a resolution varying, altering or abrogating any of the rights, privileges, limitations or restrictions attached to the Dollar Preference Shares;

unless at the date of such meeting the most recent instalment of the Preference Dividend due to be paid prior to such meeting shall not have been paid in cash in which event the Dollar Preference Shareholders shall be entitled to speak and vote on all resolutions proposed at such meeting.

For the avoidance of doubt, unless otherwise provided by its terms of issue and without prejudice to the rights attached to the Dollar Preference Shares to participate in any return of capital, the rights attached to any Dollar Preference Share shall not be deemed to be varied, altered or abrogated by a reduction in any share capital ranking as regards participation in the profits and assets of the Company pari passu with or after such Dollar Preference Shares or by any redemption of any such share capital, unless, in either of the foregoing cases, the then most recent dividend due to be paid on each class of preference share in the capital of the Company prior to such reduction or redemption shall not have been paid in cash.

 - (a) At a separate General Meeting of the Dollar Preference Shareholders, on a show of hands each Dollar Preference Shareholder present in person shall have one vote and on a poll each Dollar Preference Shareholder present in person or by proxy shall have one vote in respect of each U.S.$1 in nominal value of Dollar Preference Share capital held by him; and
 - (b) whenever the Dollar Preference Shareholders are entitled to vote at a General Meeting of the Company then, on a show of hands, each Dollar Preference Shareholder present in person shall have one vote and on a poll each Dollar Preference Shareholder present in person or by proxy shall have such number of votes in respect of each Dollar Preference Share held by him as the Directors may determine prior to the allotment of such shares.
- (3) On a relevant requisition given in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraph (4) below, the Directors shall procure that an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company shall be convened forthwith.

- (4) A "relevant requisition" is a requisition:-
- (a) which has been signed by or on behalf of the Holders of a majority of the Dollar Preference Shares in issue at the date of such requisition; and
 - (b) which states the objects of the meeting to be convened;

and a relevant requisition may consist of several documents in like form each signed by or on behalf of one or more of the requisitionists.

- (5) The right to requisition a General Meeting of the Company contained in this paragraph (d) (E) shall be exercisable only at a time when the most recent instalment of the Preference Dividend due to be paid prior to such requisition shall not have been paid in cash.
- (6) The Directors shall procure that, on any resolution at a General Meeting of the Company upon which the Dollar Preference Shareholders are entitled to vote and on each resolution at a separate General Meeting of the Dollar Preference Shareholders, a poll is demanded by the Chairman of such meeting in accordance with these Articles.

(F) Restriction on Capitalisations and Issues of Securities

The following shall apply in relation to any particular Dollar Preference Shares (in this paragraph the "Relevant Dollar Preference Shares") if so determined by the Directors prior to the allotment thereof. Save with the written consent of the Holders of not less than 66²/₃% in nominal value of the Relevant Dollar Preference Shares, or with the sanction of a resolution passed at a separate General Meeting of the Holders of the Relevant Dollar Preference Shares where the Holders of not less than 66²/₃% in nominal value of the Relevant Dollar Preference Shares have voted in favour of such resolution, the Directors shall not (i) pursuant to Articles 123 and 125 capitalise any part of the amounts available for distribution and referred to in such Articles if after such capitalisation the aggregate of such amounts would be less than a multiple, determined by the Directors prior to the allotment of the Relevant Dollar Preference Shares, of the aggregate amount of the annual dividends (exclusive of any associated tax credit) payable on the Dollar Preference Shares then in issue and any other preference shares then in issue ranking as regards the right to receive dividends or the rights on winding up of, or other return of capital by, the Company, pari passu with or in priority to the Relevant Dollar Preference Shares, or (ii) authorise or create, or increase the amount of, any shares of any class or any security convertible into the shares of any class ranking as regards the right to receive dividends or the rights on winding up of, or other return of capital by, the Company, in priority to the Relevant Dollar Preference Shares.

(G) Further Preference Shares

The Company may from time to time create and issue further preference shares ranking as regards participation in the profits and assets of the Company pari passu with the Dollar Preference Shares and so that any such further preference shares may be denominated in any currency and may carry as regards participation in the profits and assets of the Company rights identical in all respects to those attaching to the Dollar Preference Shares or rights differing therefrom in any respect and in particular, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing:-

- (1) the rate of dividend may differ and the dividend may be cumulative or non-cumulative;
- (2) the periods by reference to which dividend is payable may differ;
- (3) a premium may be payable on a return of capital or there may be no such premium;
- (4) the further preference shares may be redeemable at the option of the Company or the Holder or may be non-redeemable or may be redeemable at different dates and on different terms from those applying to the Dollar Preference Shares; and

- (5) the further preference shares may be convertible into Ordinary Shares or any other class of shares ranking as regards participation in the profits and assets of the Company pari passu with or after such Dollar Preference Shares, in each case on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the terms of issue thereof.

The creation or issue of, or the variation, alteration or abrogation of or addition to the rights, privileges, limitations or restrictions attaching to, any shares of the Company ranking after the Dollar Preference Shares as regards participation in the profits and assets of the Company and, provided that, on the date of such creation or issue, the most recent instalment of the dividend due to be paid on each class of preference share in the capital of the Company prior to such date shall have been paid in cash, the creation or issue of further preference shares ranking pari passu with the Dollar Preference Shares as provided for above, shall be deemed not to be a variation, alteration or abrogation of the rights, privileges, limitations or restrictions attached to the Dollar Preference Shares. If any further preference shares of the Company shall have been issued, then any subsequent variation, alteration or abrogation of or addition to the rights, privileges, limitations or restrictions attaching to any of such further preference shares shall be deemed not to be a variation, alteration or abrogation of the rights, privileges, limitations or restrictions attaching to the Dollar Preference Shares, provided that the rights attaching to such further preference shares thereafter shall be such that the creation and issue by the Company of further preference shares carrying those rights would have been permitted under this paragraph.

3. Rights of shares on issue

- a) Without prejudice to any special rights conferred on the Holders of any existing shares or class of shares and subject to the provisions of the Acts, any share may be issued with such rights or restrictions as the Company may by ordinary resolution determine or as the Directors may from time to time determine pursuant to any power conferred on them by these Articles.
- b) Without prejudice to the power conferred on the Company by paragraph (a) of this Article, the Directors on the allotment and issue of any shares may impose restrictions on the transferability or disposal of the shares comprised in a particular allotment as may be considered by the Directors to be in the best interests of the shareholders as a whole.

4. Restrictions on allotments and transfers

- b) Any provision (including any altered provision) of these Articles which is to any extent inconsistent with paragraph (a) of this Article or with Section 102(2) of the Building Societies Act shall to that extent, be void and any allotment or registration of a transfer of any share or shares or debenture or debentures in contravention of this Article or of Section 102(l) of the Building Societies Act, shall be void and any voting rights held by, or by nominees for, any one person or by persons or their nominees acting in concert in excess of a figure representing 15 per cent of the total voting rights shall not be exercisable by that person or persons or by their nominees.
- c) In accordance with Section 102(2) of the Building Societies Act, no alterations in the above provisions shall be made by the Company during the five year period after the Conversion Date but this Article shall cease to apply to the Company if the Central Bank of Ireland in accordance with Section 102(4) of the Building Societies Act, directs by notice to the Company that Sub-Sections (1), (2) and (3) of Section 102 aforesaid shall cease to apply to the Company.
- d) In this Article "transfer" in relation to shares or debentures does not include a transfer to a person to whom the right to any shares or debentures has been transmitted by operation of law.
- e) Unless the Central Bank of Ireland directs otherwise by a notice given to the Company as referred to at paragraph (c) above, this Article shall remain in force until the date which falls five years after the Conversion Date notwithstanding any provisions in these Articles to the contrary. Thereafter this Article shall be deemed to be of no effect

5. 15 per cent limit on holding of shares with voting rights

- a) The purpose of this Article is to prevent until the date which falls five years after the Conversion Date any person other than a Permitted Person from obtaining or retaining an Interest in Relevant Share Capital which carries 15 per cent or more of the total votes attaching to Relevant Share Capital of all classes taken as a whole and capable of being cast on a poll.

This Article shall remain in force until the date which falls five years after the Conversion Date notwithstanding any provisions in these Articles to the contrary. Thereafter this Article shall be deemed to be of no effect, the separate register required under paragraph (b) below shall no longer be maintained and any notice calling for a Required Disposal and the powers of the Directors under this Article in respect of a Required Disposal shall cease to have effect; but the validity of anything done under this Article before that date shall not otherwise be affected and any actions taken hereunder before that date shall not be open to challenge on any grounds whatsoever.

For the purposes of this Article 5:-

"Interest" means an interest (of any size) in the Relevant Share Capital which would be taken into account in deciding whether a notification to the Company would be required under Chapter 2 of Part IV of the 1990 Act but shall for all purposes include (the "Included Interests") (i) rights to subscribe for or convert into, or entitlements to acquire rights to subscribe for or convert into, shares which would on issue or conversion (as the case may be) be comprised in the Relevant Share Capital; (ii) the interests referred to in Section 78(1)(a), (c) and (g) of the 1990 Act except those of a bare or custodian trustee and of a simple trustee and (iii) any deemed voting concert party interest consequent upon a resolution of the Directors pursuant to paragraph (e) below; and "interested" shall be construed accordingly;

- vi) persons in respect of, and to the extent only of, Interests which exist only by virtue of an obligation (contingent or otherwise) to take up Shares or the acquisition of Shares pursuant to an underwriting agreement or subscription agreement or other similar agreement in each case approved by the Directors provided that where any given underwriter or party to such an agreement disposes of any Shares at any time after acquiring an Interest by virtue of an obligation (contingent or otherwise) to take up Shares or the acquisition of shares pursuant to such an agreement, it shall be deemed to be a Permitted Person in respect only of that number of Shares in which it was interested pursuant to such agreement less the number of Shares in which it has ceased to be interested).

"Relevant Person" means any person (whether or not identified) who has, or who appears to the Directors to have, an Interest in Shares which carry (or would on issue or conversion carry) 15 per cent. or more of the total votes attaching to Relevant Share Capital of all classes taken as a whole and capable of being cast on a poll (calculated in accordance with paragraph (c) below);) and, for the purposes of this article, where (i) the Directors resolve, pursuant to paragraph (k) below, that they have made reasonable enquiries and that they are unable to determine whether or not a person has an Interest in any particular Shares comprised (or which would on issue or conversion be comprised) in Relevant Share Capital or (ii) there is failure to comply with a Disclosure Notice as required by paragraph (f) below and the Directors resolve (as provided in such paragraphs) that such Shares be deemed to be Relevant Shares, then the Shares concerned shall be deemed to be Relevant Shares and all persons interested in them to be Relevant Persons;

"Relevant Share Capital" means the relevant share capital of the Company (as that expression is defined in Section 67(2) of the 1990 Act);

"Relevant Shares" means all Shares in which a Relevant Person has or appears to the Directors to have or is deemed to have an Interest; and, for the purposes of this Article, where the Interest in question falls within Section (i) of the definition of "Included Interests", the rights or entitlements referred to in such section (and not the Shares which are the subject of the rights or entitlements referred to therein) shall (until such right is exercised) be deemed to be Relevant Shares;

"Required Disposal" means a disposal or disposals of, or of Interests in, such number of Relevant Shares as will cause a Relevant Person to cease to be a Relevant Person, not being a disposal to another Relevant Person (other than a Permitted Person) or a disposal which constitutes any other person (other than a Permitted Person) a Relevant Person; and

"Share" means any share comprised in Relevant Share Capital.

- b) The provisions of Chapter 2 of Part IV of the 1990 Act shall for the purposes of these Articles be deemed to be extended to the Included Interests, and accordingly the Company, its Members and all persons interested in Shares (or shares which would on issue or conversion be comprised in Relevant Share Capital) shall have the rights and obligations referred to in Chapter 2 of Part IV of the 1990 Act as the same are hereby extended to Included Interests, but so that Included Interests shall when disclosed to the Company, be entered in a separate register which shall be kept by the Company for that purpose and the provisions of Sections 79(3) to (8) (inclusive), 80(10), 82(3) (so far as it relates to Section 80(10)), 83(5), 84(7), 85, 86(7), 87(3), 88(4) and (5), 16(2), (3) and (4) and 16(14), (15) and (16) of the 1990 Act shall not apply to Included Interests (together the "Excluded Provisions of Chapter 2 of Part IV").
- c)
- i) In calculating (for the purposes of ascertaining whether a person is a Relevant Person) the total votes attaching (or which would on issue or conversion attach) to Relevant Share Capital of all classes taken as a whole and capable of being cast on a poll at any meeting, there shall be disregarded any votes which, by virtue of this Article or Article 69 or any court order, are precluded (whether temporarily or not) from being cast on a poll at the meeting.
- ii) In calculating (for the purposes of ascertaining whether a person is a Relevant Person) the total votes attaching (or which would on issue or conversion attach) to Relevant Share Capital taken as a whole and capable of being cast on a poll at any meeting and in calculating (for the purposes of determining whether an Interest is notifiable pursuant to paragraph (d) below) the notifiable percentage, where some or all of the Interest in question falls within Section (i) of the definition of "Included Interests", there shall only be taken into account the Relevant Share Capital and the Shares to which the Included Interest in question relates as if all those Shares were in issue or conversion in full had been effected.
- d) Notwithstanding any regulations made under Section 70 of the 1990 Act, if the notifiable percentage referred to in Section 68 of the 1990 Act shall exceed five per cent, the rights and obligations referred to in this Article and the rights and obligations referred to in Chapter 2 of Part IV except the Excluded Provisions of Chapter 2 of Part IV shall apply as though such notifiable percentage were five percent, and as if such provisions except the Excluded Provisions of Chapter 2 of Part IV extended to Included Interests. If the notifiable percentage referred to in section 68 of the 1990 Act shall be less than five percent, the rights and obligations referred to in this Article shall apply with the substitution of such lesser notifiable percentage for five percent and as if Chapter 2 of Part IV (other than the Excluded Provisions of Chapter 2 of Part IV) extended to Included Interests. The rights and obligations created by this paragraph and paragraph (b) above are in addition to and separate from those arising under Chapter 2 of Part IV of the 1990 Act.
- e)
- i) Without prejudice to the application of Section 73 of the 1990 Act to the definition of "Interest" in paragraph (a) above, where it appears to the Directors that:-
- a) there is an agreement or arrangement between two or more persons with respect to, or to the exercise of, voting rights attaching to Shares; and
- b) the agreement or arrangement is likely to result in those rights being exercised to a material extent in the same way or for the same purpose with a view to the persons being the parties to the agreement or arrangement being able to influence or to control the policy of the Company or the management of its affairs;

the Directors may resolve that a voting concert party exists and if they so resolve, each of the persons who is party to such agreement or arrangement shall be deemed (for the purposes of this article) to be interested in all the Shares to which the voting rights in question are attached.

- ii) In this paragraph (e), references to an arrangement include references to an understanding or mutual expectation, whether formal or informal and whether or not legally binding.
 - iii) Where pursuant to sub-paragraph (i) of paragraph (e) above the Directors resolve that a voting concert party exists they shall (if they are so able), within twenty-one days after the date of such resolution, send to each of the persons who is party to such voting concert party, notice of the resolution.
- f)
- i) The Directors may by notice in writing require any Member, or other person appearing to be interested or appearing to have been interested in Shares, to disclose to the Company in writing such information as the Directors shall require relating to the ownership of or interests (including, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, Interests) in the Shares in question as lies within the knowledge of such Member or other person (supported if the Directors so require by a statutory declaration and/or by independent evidence) including (without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing):-
 - a) any information which the Company is entitled to seek pursuant to Section 81 of the 1990 Act;
 - b) any information which the Directors shall deem necessary or desirable in order to determine whether any shares or rights to subscribe for, or convert into, Shares are Relevant Shares; and
 - c) any information which the Directors shall deem necessary or desirable in order to determine whether any person is or is deemed to be a Relevant Person or otherwise in relation to the application or potential application of this Article.
 - ii) The Directors may give a Disclosure Notice pursuant to sub-paragraph (i) of paragraph (f) above at any time and the Directors may give one or more than one such notice to the same Member or other person in respect of the same shares.
 - iii) Where the holder of any Shares or rights to subscribe for, or convert into, Shares, or any person appearing to be interested in such Shares or rights, fails to comply within twenty-one days with a Disclosure Notice, the Directors may (in addition to any other remedy they may have under Article 69 or any other provision of these Articles, the Acts or otherwise) resolve that such Shares or rights be deemed to be Relevant Shares and/or that all persons interested in such Shares or rights be deemed to be Relevant Persons.
- g) If to the knowledge of the Directors any person other than a Permitted Person becomes or is deemed to be a Relevant Person, the Directors shall serve a written notice on the registered holder(s) of the Relevant Shares and on any other person or persons who appears to them to be a Relevant Person in relation to those Shares. Such notice shall set out the restrictions referred to in paragraph (j) below and call for a Required Disposal to be made within twenty-one days of the service of such notice on the registered holder or such longer period as the Directors consider reasonable. The Directors may extend the period in which such notice is required to be complied with and may withdraw any such notice (whether before or after the expiration of the period referred to) if it appears to them that there is no Relevant Person in relation to the Shares or rights concerned. Upon the giving of such notice, and save for the purpose of a Required Disposal under this paragraph (g) or paragraph (h) below, no transfer of any of the Relevant Shares may be registered until either such notice is withdrawn or a Required Disposal has been made to the satisfaction of the Directors and registered.

- h) If a notice served under paragraph (g) above has not been complied with in all respects to the satisfaction of the Directors and has not been withdrawn, the Directors shall, so far as they are able, make a Required Disposal without delay and shall give written notice of such disposal to those persons on whom such notice was served. The Relevant Person(s) and the registered holder(s) of the Shares disposed of shall be deemed to have irrevocably and unconditionally authorised the Directors to make such Required Disposal. The manner, timing and terms of any such Required Disposal made or sought to be made by the Directors (including but not limited to the price or prices at which the same is made and the extent to which assurance is obtained that no transferee (with the exception of a Permitted Person) is or would become a Relevant Person) shall be such as the Directors determine, based upon advice from such bankers, brokers or other persons as the Directors consider appropriate, consulted by them for the purpose, to be reasonably practicable having regard to all the circumstances including but not limited to the number of Shares to be disposed of and the requirement that the disposal be made without delay; and the Directors shall not be liable to any person for any of the consequences of reliance on such advice. If, on a Required Disposal being made by the Directors, Relevant Shares are held by more than one registered holder (treating joint holders of any Relevant Shares as a single holder), the Directors shall cause as near as is practicable the same proportion of each registered holding, as is known to them, of such Relevant Shares to be sold.
- i) For the purpose of effecting any Required Disposal, the Directors may authorise some person to transfer the Shares, interest or rights in question and may enter the name of the transferee in respect of the transferred Shares, Interests or rights in the appropriate register notwithstanding the absence of any share or other relevant certificate being lodged in respect thereof and may issue a new certificate to the transferee and an instrument of transfer executed by such person shall be as effective as if it had been executed by the registered holder of the Shares, Interests or rights and the title of the transferee shall not be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings relating thereto. The net proceeds of such disposal shall be received by the Company whose receipt shall be a good discharge for the purchase money, and shall be paid (together with interest at such rate as the Directors consider appropriate and after deduction of any expenses incurred by the Directors in connection with the sale) to the former registered holder (or, in the case of joint holders, the first named joint holder thereof in the register for the purpose), together with, if appropriate, a new certificate in respect of the balance of any Shares to which he is entitled, upon surrender by him or on his behalf of any certificates in respect of the Relevant Shares (or Interests therein) sold and formerly held by him.
- j) A Holder of a Relevant Share on whom a notice has been served under paragraph (g) above shall not in respect of such Relevant Share be entitled, until such time as such notice has been withdrawn or the notice has been complied with to the satisfaction of the Directors, to attend or vote at any general meeting of the Company or meeting of the holders of any class of share capital of the Company and the rights to attend (whether in person or by proxy), to speak and to demand and vote on a poll which would have attached to such Relevant Share had it not been a Relevant Share shall vest in the chairman of any such meeting. The manner in which the Chairman exercises or refrains from exercising any such rights shall be entirely at his discretion. The Directors shall inform the chairman of any such meeting as aforesaid of any share becoming or being deemed to be a Relevant Share.
- k) Without prejudice to the provisions of the Acts and subject to the provisions of this Article, the Directors may assume without enquiry that a person is not a Relevant Person unless the information contained in the registers kept by the Company under paragraph (b) above appears to the Directors to indicate to the contrary or the Directors have reason to believe otherwise, in which circumstances the Directors shall make reasonable enquiries to discover whether, and the extent to which, any person is interested in Relevant Shares. If the Directors resolve that they have made reasonable enquiries and that they are unable to determine whether or not a person is interested in any particular Shares (or shares which would on issue or conversion be comprised in Relevant Share Capital) then that person shall be deemed to be a Relevant Person and those particular Shares (or, as the case may be, rights to subscribe or convert) shall be deemed to be Relevant Shares.

- l) The Directors shall not be obliged to serve any notice required under this Article to be served upon any person if they do not know either his identity or his address. The absence of service of such a notice in such circumstances as aforesaid and any accidental error in or failure to give any notice to any person upon whom notice is required to be served under this Article shall not prevent the implementation of or invalidate any procedure or act under this Article.
- m) The Directors may serve notice pursuant to the terms of this Article irrespective of whether or not the person on whom it shall be served may be dead, bankrupt, insolvent or otherwise incapacitated and no such incapacity or any unavailability of information or inconvenience or hardship in obtaining the same shall be a satisfactory reason for failure to comply with any such notice, provided that if the Directors in their absolute discretion think fit, they may waive compliance in whole or in part with any notice given under this Article in respect of a Share in any case of bona fide unavailability of information or genuine hardship or where they otherwise think fit but no such waiver shall prejudice or affect in any way any non-compliance not so waived whether by the person concerned or any other person appearing to the Directors to be interested in the Shares or by any person to whom a notice may be given at any time.
- n) The provisions of Articles 125 to 131 shall apply to the service upon a Member of any notice required by this Article to be served.
- o) Any resolution or determination of, or decision or exercise of any discretion or power by, the Directors or any Director or by the chairman of any meeting under or pursuant to the provisions of this Article (including, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, as to what constitutes reasonable enquiries or as to the manner, timing and terms of any Required Disposal made by the Directors under paragraph (h) above) shall be final and conclusive and any disposal or transfer made, or other things done, by or on behalf of, or on the authority of, the Directors or any Director pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this Article shall be conclusive and binding on all persons concerned and shall not be open to challenge, whether as to its validity or otherwise on any ground whatsoever. The Directors shall not be required to give any reasons for any decision, determination or declaration taken or made in accordance with this Article.
- p) The Company shall ensure (and shall, so far as it is able, procure that every other company within the Group shall ensure) that any securities which are issued having rights to subscribe for, or convert into, shares which would on issue or conversion (as the case may be) be comprised in Relevant Share Capital shall be so issued on terms that such rights are subject to the provisions of this Article.

Any person on whom such a notice has been served and any other person who is interested in such shares may within 14 days of such notice (or such longer period as the Board may consider reasonable) make representations to the Board as to why such shares should not be treated as Relevant Shares but if, after considering any such representations and such other information as seems to them relevant, the Board has reason to believe that such shares may be Relevant Shares, the Board may determine that such shares shall be deemed to be Relevant Shares and they shall thereupon be treated as such for all purposes of this Article.
- d) The Board may give a notice pursuant to Article 6B b) or Article 6B c) or both of them at any time and the Board may give one or more than one such notice to the same member or other person in respect of the same shares.
- e) Each member shall notify the Company immediately upon becoming aware that any share in which he is interested (i) is or has become a Relevant Share or (ii) has ceased to be a Relevant Share.
- f) The Board shall:-
 - (i) maintain, in addition to the Register, a Register of Relevant US Holders, in which there shall be entered particulars of any shares which are or have been deemed to be Relevant Shares. The particulars entered on the Register of Relevant US Holders in respect of any share shall comprise, in addition to the name of the holder, the name of any Relevant US Holder interested or who appears to the Board to be interested in such share and such information or a summary thereof as has been supplied to the Board pursuant to Article 6B b) or Article 6B c) or otherwise or, if no such information has been supplied, such information as the Board considers appropriate; and
 - (ii) remove from the Register of Relevant US Holders particulars of any share if there has been furnished to the Board a declaration (in such form as the Board may from time to time prescribe) by the holder of such share, together with such other evidence as the Board may require, that satisfies the Board that such share is no longer a Relevant Share.
- g) The Board may at its discretion give notice to any or all Relevant US Holders calling for a Required Disposal of the Relevant Shares held by him or them to be made within 21 days or such longer period as the Board considers reasonable. The Board may extend the period within which any such notice is required to be complied with and may withdraw any such notice (whether before or after the expiration of the period referred to) if it appears to the Board that the shares to which the notice relates are not or are no longer Relevant Shares or in any other circumstances the Board sees fit. If the Board is not satisfied that a Required Disposal has been made by the expiry of the 21 day period (as may be extended), no transfer of any of the Relevant Shares to which the notice relates may be made or registered other than a transfer made pursuant to Article 6B h) or unless such notice is withdrawn.

- h) If a notice given under Article 6B g) above has not been complied with in all respects to the satisfaction of the Board or withdrawn, the Board may, so far as it is able, make a Required Disposal (or procure that a Required Disposal is made) and shall give written notice of such disposal to those persons on whom the notice was served. The holder of the shares duly disposed of and all other persons interested in such shares shall be deemed irrevocably and unconditionally to have authorised the Board to make such Required Disposal. The manner, timing and terms of any such Required Disposal made or sought to be made by the Board (including but not limited to the price or prices at which the same is made and the extent to which assurance is obtained that no transferee is or would become a Relevant US Holder) shall be such as the Board determines (based on advice from bankers, brokers, or such other persons the Board considers appropriate to be consulted by it for the purpose) to be reasonably obtainable having regard to all the circumstances, including but not limited to the number of shares to be disposed of and any requirement that the Required Disposal be made without delay; and the Board shall not be liable to any person (whether or not a Relevant US Holder) for any of the consequences (direct or indirect) of reliance on such advice.
- i) For the purpose of effecting any Required Disposal, the Board may:
- (i) authorise in writing any officer or employee of the Company to execute any necessary transfer on behalf of any holder; and/or
 - (ii) convert any share from uncertificated form to certificated form,
- and may enter the name of the transferee in the Register in respect of the transferred shares notwithstanding the absence of any share certificate and may issue a new certificate to the transferee and an instrument of transfer executed by any officer or employee of the Company so authorised by the Board shall be as effective as if it had been executed by the holder of the transferred shares and the title of the transferee shall not be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of all or any of the proceedings relating to the sale. The proceeds of the Required Disposal shall be received by the Company or by any person nominated by the Company whose receipt shall be a good discharge for the purchase money and shall be paid (together with any interest thereon (at such rate as the Board deems appropriate) (less any amount required to be withheld or deducted by law) (and after deduction of any reasonable and necessary expenses incurred by the Board in the sale) to the person entitled thereto (and, in the case of joint holders, the first of them named in the Register) upon surrender by him or on his behalf to the Company for cancellation of any certificate in respect of the transferred shares.
- j) Nothing in this Article shall require the Board to assume that any person is a Relevant US Holder unless the information contained in all or any of the Register, the registers kept by the Company under Part IV of the 1990 Act or in the Register of Relevant US Holders, appears to the Board to indicate to the contrary or the Board has reason to believe otherwise, in which circumstances the Board may make enquiries in good faith to discover whether any person is a Relevant US Holder.
- k) The Board shall not be obliged to give any notice otherwise required under this Article to any person if it does not know either his identity or his address or if it believes same to be inaccurate. The absence of such a notice in those circumstances and any accidental error in or failure to give any notice to any person to whom notice is required to be given under this Article shall not prevent the implementation of, or invalidate, any procedure under this Article.
- l) Save as otherwise provided in this Article, the provisions of Articles 126 - 132 (inclusive) shall apply to the service upon a member of any notice required by this Article to be served. Any notice required by this Article to be given to a person who is not a member, or who is a member whose registered address is not within the State, the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man and who has not given to the Company an address within the State, the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man at which notices may be given to him, shall be deemed validly served if it is sent through the post in a prepaid cover addressed to that person at the address (or, if more than one, at one of the addresses), if any, at which the Directors believe him to be resident or carrying on business or to his last known address as shown in the Register. Service or delivery of such notice shall be deemed to be effected at the expiration of 48 hours after the cover containing it was posted. In proving service or delivery it shall be sufficient to prove that such cover was properly addressed, stamped and posted.

- m) Any resolution or determination of, or decision or exercise of any discretion or power by, the Board or any Director or by the Chairman of any meeting under or pursuant to the provisions of this Article (including without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing as to what constitutes enquiries made in good faith or as to the manner, timing and terms of any Required Disposal made by the Board under this Article shall be final and conclusive; and any disposal or transfer made, or other thing done, by or on behalf of, or on the authority of, the Board or any Director pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this Article shall be conclusive and binding on all persons concerned and shall not be open to challenge, whether as to its validity or otherwise on any ground whatsoever. The Board shall not be required to give any reasons for any decision, determination, declaration or act or omission taken, made or done in accordance with this Article.
- n) Nothing in this Article 6B, nor any actions taken by the Directors or by the Company's other officers, employees, advisers or agents pursuant to this Article 6B, shall constitute the holders of Relevant Shares as a separate class.
- o) Nothing contained in this Article 6B shall limit the power of the Directors under Section 85 of the 1990 Act.
- p) None of the Company, any Director, any officer or employee appointed by the Directors to effect any Required Disposal and any of the Company's other officers and employees, advisers and agents shall have any liability in connection with any Required Disposal, including without limitation in relation to either:
 - (i) the Board's decision as to whether or not to give notice calling for a Required Disposal; or
 - (ii) any exercise of discretion as to whether or not to sell or transfer the Relevant Shares; or
 - (iii) the determination as to whether shares are or have ceased to be Relevant Shares; or
 - (iv) any failure by the Board to provide actual notice to any Relevant US Holder, including failures to provide notice pursuant to Article 6B k); or

 - (vi) the price obtained for the sale or transfer of such Relevant Shares; or
 - (vii) any refusal to register a transfer under the provisions of Article 6B g)provided that nothing in this Article 6B p) shall exclude any liability that any such person may have for fraud or any other matter the liability for which cannot be lawfully excluded.
- q) The Company may by ordinary resolution determine that the definition of "Relevant US Holder" shall take effect as if the number of shares in the Company referred to therein is a number other than 25,000 and following the passing of any such ordinary resolution, this Article 6B shall take effect accordingly.

The quorum at any such separate general meeting, other than an adjourned meeting, shall be two persons holding or representing by proxy at least one-third in nominal value of the issued shares of the class in question and the quorum at an adjourned meeting shall be one person holding shares of the class in question or his proxy. The Holders of shares of the class shall, on a poll, have one vote in respect of every share of the class held by them respectively. Any Holder of shares of the class in question present in person or by proxy at such meeting may demand a poll.
- b) The rights conferred upon the Holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by these Articles or the terms of the issue of the shares of that class, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari passu therewith or subordinate thereto.
- c) Whenever the rights, privileges, limitations or restrictions attached to any particular Sterling Preference Shares in issue differ from the rights, privileges, limitations or restrictions attached to any other Sterling Preference Shares in issue and:
- i) some matter has arisen which would amount to a variation, alteration or abrogation of the rights, privileges, limitations or restrictions attached to all those Sterling Preference Shares; and
 - ii) the effect of such variation, alteration or abrogation on all those Sterling Preference Shares is, in the opinion of the Directors, substantially the same,

- a) Without prejudice to the provisions of the Conversion Scheme as regards the statutory allotment of Free Shares pursuant to Section 106(6) of the Building Societies Act, and subject to the provisions of these Articles relating to new shares, the shares shall be at the disposal of the Directors and (subject to the provisions of these Articles and the Acts) they may allot, grant options over or otherwise dispose of them to such persons on such terms and conditions and at such times as they may consider to be in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders, but so that no share shall be issued at a discount and so that, in the case of shares offered to the public for subscription, the amount payable on application on each share shall not be less than one-quarter of the nominal amount of the share and the whole of any premium thereon.

Part III - Share Certificates

13. Issue of certificates

Every Member (except a Stock Exchange Nominee in respect of whom the Company is not by law required to complete and have ready for delivery a certificate) shall in the case of shares held in certificated form be entitled without payment to receive within two months after allotment or lodgement of a transfer to him of the shares in respect of which he is so registered (or within such other period as the conditions of issue shall provide) one certificate for all the shares of each class held by him or several certificates each for one or more of his shares upon payment for every certificate after the first of such reasonable out of pocket expenses as the Directors may determine provided that the Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate for shares held jointly by several persons and delivery of a certificate to one joint Holder shall be a sufficient delivery to all of them. The Company shall not be bound to register more than four persons as joint Holders of any share (except in the case of executors or trustees of a deceased Member). Every certificate shall be sealed with the Seal and shall specify the number, class and distinguishing number (if any) of the shares to which it relates and the amount or respective amounts paid up thereon.

14. Balance and exchange certificates

- a) Where some only of the shares comprised in a share certificate are transferred the old certificate shall be cancelled and the new certificate for the balance of such shares shall be issued in lieu without charge.
- b) Any two or more certificates representing shares of any one class held by any Member at his request may be cancelled and a single new certificate for such shares issued in lieu, without charge unless the Directors otherwise determine. 15. Replacement of certificates

If a share certificate is defaced, worn out, lost, stolen or destroyed, it may be replaced on such terms (if any) as to evidence and indemnity and payment of any exceptional expenses incurred by the Company in investigating evidence or in relation to any indemnity as the Directors may determine but otherwise free of charge, and (in the case of defacement or wearing out) on delivery up of the old certificate.

Part IV - Lien on Shares

16. Extent of lien

The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share (not being a fully paid share) for all moneys (whether presently payable or not) payable at a fixed time or called in respect of that share. The Directors, at any time, may declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this Article. The Company's lien on a share shall extend to all moneys payable in respect of it.

17. Power of sale

The Company may sell in such manner as the Directors determine any share on which the Company has a lien if a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable and is not paid within fourteen Clear Days after notice demanding payment, and stating that if the notice is not complied with the shares may be sold, has been given to the Holder of the share or to the person entitled to it by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the Holder.

18. Power to effect transfer

To give effect to a sale the Directors may authorise some person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares sold to, or in accordance with the directions of, the purchaser. The transferee shall be entered in the Register as the Holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase moneys nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings in reference to the sale, and after the name of the transferee has been entered in the Register, the remedy of any person aggrieved by the sale shall be in damages only and against the Company exclusively.

19. Proceeds of sale

The net proceeds of the sale, after payment of the costs, shall be applied in payment of so much of the sum for which the lien exists as is presently payable and any residue (upon surrender to the Company for cancellation of the certificate for the shares sold and subject to a like lien for any moneys not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale) shall be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale.

Part V - Calls on Shares and Forfeiture

20. Making of calls

Subject to the terms of allotment, the Directors may make calls upon the Members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares and each Member (subject to receiving at least fourteen Clear Days' notice specifying when and where payment is to be made) shall pay to the Company as required by the notice the amount called on his shares. A call may be required to be paid by instalments. A call may be revoked before receipt by the Company of a sum due thereunder, in whole or in part and payment of a call may be postponed in whole or in part. A person upon whom a call is made shall remain liable for calls made upon him notwithstanding the subsequent transfer of the shares in respect of which the call was made.

21. Time of call

A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorising the call was passed.

22. Liability of joint Holders

The joint Holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.

23. Interest on calls

If a call remains unpaid after it has become due and payable the person from whom it is due and payable shall pay interest on the amount unpaid from the day it became due until it is paid at the rate fixed by the terms of allotment of the share or in the notice of the call or, if no rate is fixed, at the appropriate rate (as defined by the Acts) but the Directors may waive payment of the interest wholly or in part.

24. Instalments treated as calls

An amount payable in respect of a share on allotment or at any fixed date, whether in respect of nominal value or as an instalment of a call, shall be deemed to be a call and if it is not paid the provisions of these Articles shall apply as if that amount had become due and payable by virtue of a call.

25. Power to differentiate

Subject to the terms of allotment, the Directors may make arrangements on the issue of shares for a difference between the Holders in the amounts and times of payment of calls on their shares.

26. Interest on moneys advanced

The Directors, if they think fit, may receive from any Member willing to advance the advanced same all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him, and upon all or any of the moneys so advanced may pay (until the same would, but for such advance, become payable) interest at such rate, not exceeding (unless the Company in general meeting otherwise directs) 15 per cent. per annum, as may be agreed upon between the Directors and the Member paying such sum in advance.

27. Notice requiring payment

- a) If a Member fails to pay any call or instalment of a call on the day appointed for payment thereof, the Directors, at any time thereafter during such times as any part of the call or instalment remains unpaid, may serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid together with any interest which may have accrued.
- b) The notice shall name a further day (not earlier than the expiration of fourteen Clear Days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made, and shall state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time appointed the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.
- c) If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with then, at any time thereafter before the payment required by the notice has been made, any shares in respect of which the notice has been given may be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect. The forfeiture shall include all dividends or other moneys payable in respect of the forfeited shares and not paid before forfeiture. The Directors may accept a surrender of any share liable to be forfeited hereunder.
- d) On the trial or hearing of any action for the recovery of any money due for any call it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the Member sued is entered in the Register as the Holder, or one of the Holders, of the shares in respect of which such debt accrued, that the resolution making the call is duly recorded in the minute book and that notice of such call was duly given to the Member sued, in pursuance of these Articles, and it shall not be necessary to prove the appointment of the Directors who made such call nor any other matters whatsoever, but the proof of the matters aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the debt.

28. Power of disposal

A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Directors think fit and at any time before a sale or disposition the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the Directors think fit. Where for the purposes of its disposal such a share is to be transferred to any person, the Directors may authorise some person to execute an instrument of transfer of the share to that person. The Company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share on any sale or disposition thereof and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of and thereupon he shall be registered as the Holder of the share and shall not be bound to see the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share.

29. Effect of forfeiture

A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a Member in respect of the forfeited shares, but nevertheless shall remain liable to pay to the Company all moneys which, at the date of forfeiture, were payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares, but his liability shall cease if and when the Company shall have received payment in full of all such moneys in respect of the shares.

30. Statutory declaration

A statutory declaration that the declarant is a Director or the Secretary of the Company, and that a share in the Company has been duly forfeited on the date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share.

31. Non-payment of sums due on share issues

The provisions of these Articles as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

Part VI - Conversion of Shares into Stock

32. Conversion of shares into stock

The Company by ordinary resolution may convert any paid up shares into stock and reconvert any stock into paid up shares of any denomination.

33. Transfer of stock

The Holders of stock may transfer the same or any part thereof, in the same manner, and subject to the same regulations, as and subject to which the shares from which the stock arose might have been transferred before conversion, or as near thereto as circumstances admit; and the Directors may fix from time to time the minimum amount of stock transferable but so that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of each share from which the stock arose.

34. Rights of stockholders

- a) The Holders of stock shall have, according to the amount of stock held by them, the same rights, privileges and advantages in relation to dividends, voting at meetings of the Company and other matters as if they held the shares from which the stock arose, but no such right, privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the Company and in the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which, if existing in shares, would not have conferred that right, privilege or advantage.
- b) Such of these Articles as are applicable to paid up shares shall apply to stock, and the words "share" and "shareholder" therein shall include "stock" and "stockholder".

Part VII - Transfer of Shares

35. Form of instrument of transfer

- a) Subject to such of the restriction of these Articles and to such of the conditions of issue of transfer as may be applicable, the shares of any Member may be transferred by instrument in writing in any usual or common form or any other form which the Directors may approve.
- b) Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, title to any shares in the Company may be evidenced without a share certificate or certificates, and title to any shares in the Company may be transferred by means of a computer-based system and procedure (or any other appropriate system and procedures) which, inter alia, enable title to shares to be transferred without a written instrument, in each case in accordance with regulations made from time to time under Section 239 of the 1990 Act or in accordance with any other statutory provisions or regulations having similar effect. The Directors shall have the power to implement any arrangements they think fit for such evidencing and transfer which accord with such regulations or statutory provisions, and also to implement any ancillary arrangements which seem to them to be necessary or desirable.

36. Execution of instrument of transfer

The instrument of transfer of any share shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and, in cases where the share is not fully paid, by or on behalf of the transferee. The transferor shall be deemed to remain the Holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect thereof.

37. Refusal to register transfers

- a) The Directors in their absolute discretion and without assigning any reason therefor may decline to register:-
 - i) any transfer of a share which is not fully paid save however, that in the case of such a share which is admitted to listing on The Stock Exchange such restriction shall not operate so as to prevent dealings in such share of the Company from taking place on an open and proper basis;
 - ii) any transfer to or by a minor or person of unsound mind; or
 - iii) to which the final sentence of Article 6B g) applies.
- b) The Directors may decline to recognise any instrument of transfer unless:-
 - i) the instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates and such other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer (save where the transferor is a Stock Exchange Nominee);
 - ii) the instrument of transfer is in respect of one class of share only;
 - iii) the instrument of transfer is in favour of not more than four transferees; and
 - iv) it is lodged at the Office or at such other place as the Directors may appoint.

38. Procedure on refusal

If the Directors refuse to register a transfer then, within two months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Company, they shall send to the transferee notice of the refusal.

39. Closing of transfer books

The registration of transfers of shares or of transfers either generally or in respect of any class of shares may be suspended at such times and for such periods (not exceeding thirty days in each year) as the Directors may determine.

40. Absence of registration fees

No fee shall be charged for the registration of any instrument of transfer or other document or instruction relating to or affecting the title to any share.

41. Retention of transfer instruments

The Company shall be entitled to retain any instrument of transfer which is registered, but any instrument of transfer which the Directors refuse to register shall be returned to the person lodging it when notice of the refusal is given.

42. Renunciation of allotment

Nothing in these Articles shall preclude the Directors from recognising a renunciation of the allotment of any shares by the allottee in favour of some other person.

Part VIII - Transmission of Shares

43. Death of Member

If a Member dies the survivor or survivors where he was a joint Holder, and his personal representatives where he was a sole Holder or the only survivor of joint Holders, shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to his interest in the shares; but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased Member from any liability in respect of any share which had been jointly held by him.

44. Transmission on death or bankruptcy

A person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member may elect, upon such evidence being produced as the Directors may properly require, either to become the Holder of the share or to have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee. If he elects to become the Holder he shall give notice to the Company to that effect. If he elects to have another person registered he shall execute an instrument of transfer of the share to that person. All of these Articles relating to the transfer of shares shall apply to the notice or instrument of transfer as if it were an instrument of transfer executed by the Member and the death or bankruptcy of the Member had not occurred.

45. Rights before registration

A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or bankruptcy of a Member (upon supplying to the Company such evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to show his title to the share) shall have the rights to which he would be entitled if he were the Holder of the share, except that, before being registered as the Holder of the share, he shall not be entitled in respect of it to attend or vote at any meeting of the Company or at any separate meeting of the Holders of any class of shares in the Company, so, however, that the Directors, at any time, may give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share and, if the notice is not complied with within ninety days, the Directors thereupon may withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other moneys payable in respect of the share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

Part IX - Alteration of Share Capital

46. Increase of capital

- a) The Company from time to time by ordinary resolution may increase the share capital by such sum, to be divided into shares of such amount, as the resolution shall prescribe.
- b) Subject to the provisions of the Acts and also to the provisions of Article 2(b), Article 2(c) and Article 2(d), the new shares shall be issued to such persons, upon such terms and conditions and with such rights and privileges annexed thereto as the general meeting resolving upon the creation thereof shall direct and, if no direction be given, as the Directors shall determine and in particular such shares may be issued with a preferential or qualified right to dividends and in the distribution of the assets of the Company and with a special, or without any, right of voting.
- c) Except so far as otherwise provided by the conditions of issue or by these Articles, any capital raised by the creation of new shares shall be considered part of the pre-

The Company, by ordinary resolution, may:-

- a) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount;
- b) subject to the provisions of the Acts, subdivide its shares, or any of them, into shares of smaller amount, so however that in the sub-division the proportion between the amount paid and the amount, if any, unpaid on each reduced share shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the reduced share is derived (and so that the resolution whereby any share is sub-divided may determine that, as between the Holders of the shares resulting from such sub-division, one or more of the shares may have, as compared with the others, any such preferred, deferred or other rights or be subject to any such restrictions as the Company has power to attach to unissued or new shares); or
- c) cancel any shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person and reduce the amount of its authorised share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled.

48. Fractions on consolidation

Subject to the provisions of these Articles, whenever as a result of a consolidation of shares any Members would become entitled to fractions of a share, the Directors may sell, on behalf of those Members, the shares representing the fraction for the best price reasonably obtainable to any person and distribute the proceeds of sale in due proportion among those Members, and the Directors may authorise some person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares to, or in accordance with the directions of, the purchaser. The transferee shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings in reference to the sale.

49. Reduction of capital

The Company, by special resolution, may reduce its share capital, any capital redemption reserve fund or any share premium account in any manner and with, and subject to, any incident authorised, and consent required, by law. Unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue and without prejudice to the rights attached to any preference share to participate in any return of capital, the rights, privileges, limitations and restrictions attached to any preference share shall be deemed not to be varied, altered or abrogated by a reduction in any share capital ranking as regards participation in the profits and assets of the Company pari passu with or after that preference share.

50. Purchase of own shares

- a) Subject to the provisions of the Acts and to any rights conferred on the holders of any class of shares, the Company may purchase all or any of its shares of any class (including any redeemable shares). Every contract for the purchase of, or under which the Company may become entitled or obliged to purchase, shares in the Company shall be authorised by a special resolution of the Company and by a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of any shares which at the date on which the contract is authorised by the Company in general meeting entitle them, either immediately or at any time later on, to convert all or any of the shares of that class held by them into equity share capital of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Directors shall be required to select the shares to be purchased ratably or in any particular manner as between the holders of shares of the same class or as between them and the holders of shares of any other class or in accordance with the rights as to dividends or capital conferred by any class of shares. Subject as aforesaid, the Company may cancel any shares so purchased or may hold them as treasury shares and issue any such treasury shares as shares of any class or classes or cancel them. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these Articles, the rights attached to any class of shares shall be deemed not to be varied by anything done by the Company pursuant to this Article.

- b) For the purpose of any resolution pursuant to this Article and Section 215 of the Companies Act, 1990 authorising the purchase by the Company and/or any subsidiary (as such expression is defined by Section 155 of the Companies Act, 1963) of the Company of any of the Company's Ordinary Shares;
- (i) the maximum aggregate number of Ordinary Shares authorised to be acquired pursuant to such a resolution shall be stated in such resolution and shall not exceed 10% of the aggregate number of Ordinary Shares issued by the Company at the close of business on the date of passing such a resolution;
 - (ii) the minimum price which may be paid for any such share shall be an amount equal to the nominal value thereof;
 - (iii) the maximum price which may be paid for any such share shall be an amount equal to the higher of
 - A. the nominal value of such shares;
 - B. 105% of the average of the Relevant Price for such shares for the five business days before the purchase of the shares; and
 - C. (if there shall be any), 105% of the average of the middle market quotation for such share as derived from the London Stock Exchange Daily Official List (or any successor publication thereto), for the five business days before the purchase of the share; and
 - (iv) for the purpose of sub-paragraph (iii)(B) "Relevant Price" means, in respect of any business day on which there shall be a dealing on the Irish Stock Exchange (or any successor thereto) in respect of such shares, the last price of such share as published in the Irish Stock Exchange Daily Official List (or any successor publication thereto) and, in respect of any business day on which there shall be no such dealing, the price which is equal to (x) the mid-point between the high and low market guide prices in respect of such shares for such business day as published in the Irish Stock Exchange Daily Official List (or any successor publication thereto), or (y) the market guide price published if there shall be only one such market guide price published, PROVIDED THAT if there shall not be any market guide price published for any particular day then that day shall not count as one of the said five business days for the purpose of determining the maximum price. If the means of providing the foregoing information as to dealings and prices, by reference to which the maximum price is to be determined, is altered or is replaced by some other means, then the maximum price shall be determined on the basis of the equivalent information published by the relevant authority in relation to dealings on the Irish Stock Exchange or its equivalent.
 - (v) Any resolution passed pursuant to this Article 50(b) shall expire 18 months from the date of the passing of such a resolution or on an earlier date if provided for by such a resolution.
- c) If any resolution is passed pursuant to this Article authorising the Company and/or any subsidiary to purchase any of the Company's Ordinary Shares and it is intended that those shares be held as Treasury Shares and re-issued at a later date, then the provisions of paragraph (d) of this Article shall apply.

- d) For the purposes of any resolution of the Company proposing to determine, in accordance with Section 209 of the Companies Act, 1990, the re-issue price range of which any Treasury Shares for the time being held by the Company may be re-issued off-market:-
- (i) the maximum price at which a Treasury Share may be re-issued off-market shall be an amount equal to 120 per cent of the Appropriate Price;
 - (ii) the minimum price at which a Treasury Share may be re-issued off-market shall be an amount equal to 95 per cent of the Appropriate Price;
 - (iii) for the purposes of sub-paragraph (i) and (ii), the expression "Appropriate Price" shall mean the higher of:
 - A. the average of the Relevant Price for shares of the class of which such Treasury Share is to be re-issued for the 5 business days before the day on which the Treasury Share is re-issued; and
 - B. (if there shall be any), the average of the middle market quotation for shares of the class of which such Treasury Share is to be reissued, as derived from the London Stock Exchange Daily Official List (or any successor publication thereto), for the 5 business days before the day on which the Treasury Share is re-issued; and
 - (iv) for the purposes of sub-paragraph (iii)(A), "Relevant Price" means in respect of any business day on which there shall be a dealing on the Irish Stock Exchange (or any successor thereto) in respect of shares of the class of which the Treasury Share is to be reissued, the last price of such shares as published in the Irish Stock Exchange Daily Official List (or any successor publication thereto) and, in respect of any business day on which there shall be no such dealing, the price which is equal to (x) the mid-point between the high and low market guide prices in respect of such shares for such business day as published in the Irish Stock Exchange Daily Official List (or any successor publication thereto), or (y) the market guide price published if there shall be only one such market guide price published PROVIDED THAT if there shall not be any market guide price published for any particular day, then that day shall not count as one of the said 5 business days for the purpose of determining the maximum price. If the means of providing the foregoing information as to dealings and prices, by reference to which the maximum price is to be determined, is altered or is replaced by some other means, then the maximum price shall be determined on the basis of the equivalent information published by the relevant authority in relation to dealings on the Irish Stock Exchange or its equivalent.

Part XX - General Meetings

51. Annual general meetings

Unless there has already been an annual general meeting of Irish Permanent Building Society in that calendar year, the Company shall hold in each year a general meeting as its annual general meeting in addition to any other meeting in that year and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it. Not more than fifteen months shall elapse between the date of one annual general meeting and that of the next.

52. Extraordinary general meetings

All general meetings other than annual general meetings shall be called extraordinary general meetings.

53. Convening general meetings

The Directors may convene general meetings. Without prejudice to the provisions of Article 2(b), Article 2(c) or Article 2(d), extraordinary general meetings may also be convened on such requisition, or in default may be convened by such requisitionists, and in such manner as may be provided by the Acts. If at any time there are not within the State sufficient Directors capable of acting to form a quorum, any Director or any two Members of the Company may convene an extraordinary general meeting in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which general meetings may be convened by the Directors.

54. Notice of general meetings

- a) Subject to the provisions of the Acts allowing a general meeting to be called by shorter notice, an annual general meeting and an extraordinary general meeting called for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by at least twenty-one Clear Days' notice and all other extraordinary general meetings shall be called by at least fourteen Clear Days' notice.
- b) Any notice convening a general meeting shall specify the time and place of the meeting and, in the case of special business, the general nature of that business and, in reasonable prominence, that a Member entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint a proxy to attend, speak and vote in his place and that a proxy need not be a Member of the Company. It shall also give particulars of any Directors who are to retire by rotation or otherwise at the meeting and of any persons who are recommended by the Directors for appointment or re- appointment as Directors at the meeting, or in respect of whom notice has been duly given to the Company of the intention to propose them for appointment or re-appointment as Directors at the meeting. Subject to any restrictions imposed on any shares, the notice shall be given to all the Members and to the Directors and the Auditors.
- c) The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at the meeting.
- d) Where, by any provision contained in the Acts, extended notice is required of a resolution, the resolution shall not be effective (except where the Directors of the Company have resolved to submit it) unless notice of the intention to move it has been given to the Company not less than twenty-eight days (or such shorter period as the Acts permit) before the meeting at which it is moved, and the Company shall give to the Members notice of any such resolution as required by and in accordance with the provisions of the Acts.
- e) The Directors may, for the purpose of controlling the level of attendance at any place specified for the holding of a general meeting, from time to time make such arrangements whether involving the issue of tickets (on a basis intended to afford to all Members otherwise entitled to attend such meeting an equal opportunity of being admitted to the meeting) or the imposition of some random means of selection or otherwise as they shall in their absolute discretion consider to be appropriate, and may from time to time vary any such arrangements or make new arrangements in place therefor and the entitlement of any Member or proxy to attend a general meeting at such place shall be subject to any such arrangements as may be for the time being in force and by the notice of meeting stated to apply to that meeting. In the case of any general meeting to which such arrangements apply the Board shall, and in the case of any other general meeting the Directors may, when specifying the place of the general meeting, direct that the meeting shall be held at a place specified in the notice at which the chairman of the meeting shall preside ("the Principal Place") and make arrangements for simultaneous attendance and participation at other places by members otherwise entitled to attend the general meeting but excluded therefrom under the provisions of this Article or who wish to attend at any of such other places provided that persons attending at the Principal Place and at any of such other places shall be able to see and hear and be seen and heard by persons attending at the Principal Place and at such other places. Such arrangements for simultaneous attendance may include arrangements for controlling the level of attendance in any manner aforesaid at such other places provided that they shall operate so that any such excluded members as aforesaid are able to attend at one of such other places. For the purposes of all other provisions of these Articles any such meeting shall be treated as being held and taking place at the Principal Place.

Part XI - Proceedings at General Meetings

55. Quorum for general meetings

- a) No business other than the appointment of a chairman shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of Members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. Except as provided in relation to an adjourned meeting, three persons entitled to vote upon the business to be transacted, each being a Member or a proxy for a Member or a duly authorised representative of a corporate Member, shall be a quorum.
- b) If such a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, or to such time and place as the Directors may determine. If at the adjourned meeting such a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting, if convened otherwise than by resolution of the Directors, shall be dissolved, but if the meeting shall have been convened by resolution of the Directors, two persons entitled to be counted in a quorum present at the meeting shall be a quorum.

56. Special business

All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an extraordinary general meeting. All business that is transacted at an annual general meeting shall also be deemed special with the exception of declaring a dividend, the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets and reports of the Directors and Auditors, the election of Directors in the place of those retiring (whether by rotation or otherwise), the fixing of the remuneration of the Directors, the re-appointment of the retiring Auditors and the fixing of the remuneration of the Auditors.

57. Chairman of general meetings

- a) Subject to article 57(b) the chairman of the board of Directors or, in his absence, the deputy chairman (if any) or, in his absence, some other Director nominated by the Directors shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the Company. If at any general meeting none of such persons shall be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting and willing to act, the Directors present shall elect one of their number to be chairman of the meeting and, if there is only one Director present and willing to act, he shall be chairman.
- b) If at any time the Directors have appointed joint chairmen, the joint chairmen shall, unless otherwise determined by the Board, agree among themselves who shall preside as chairman at general meetings of the Company (or at any adjournment(s) of such meetings). If at any general meeting the relevant joint chairman is not present and willing to act within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting, the other joint chairman, if present and willing to act, shall preside as chairman of the general meeting. If neither joint chairman is present and willing to act as aforesaid then the chairman of the meeting shall be appointed pursuant to the provisions of article 57(a).
- c) If at any meeting no Director is willing to act as chairman or if no Director is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Members present and entitled to vote shall choose one of the Members personally present to be chairman of the meeting.

58. Directors' and Auditors' right to attend general meetings

A Director shall be entitled, notwithstanding that he is not a Member, to attend and speak at any general meeting and at any separate meeting of the Holders of any class of shares in the Company. The Auditors shall be entitled to attend any general meeting and to be heard on any part of the business of the meeting which concerns them as the Auditors.

59. Adjournment of general meetings

The Chairman, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present, may (and if so directed by the meeting, shall) adjourn the meeting from time to time (or sine die) and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place. Where a meeting is adjourned sine die, the time and place for the adjourned meeting shall be fixed by the Directors. When a meeting is adjourned for fourteen days or more or sine die, at least seven Clear Days' notice shall be given specifying the time and meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjourned meeting.

60. Determination of resolutions

At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, the show of hands a poll is duly demanded. Unless a poll is so demanded a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn before the poll is taken but only with the consent of the Chairman, and a demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.

61. Amendments to resolutions

If an amendment shall be proposed to any resolution under consideration but shall in good faith be ruled out of order by the chairman of the meeting, the proceedings on the substantive resolution shall not be invalidated by any error in such ruling.

62. Entitlement to demand poll

Subject to the provisions of the Acts, a poll may be demanded:-

- a) by the chairman of the meeting;
- b) by at least five Members present (in person or by proxy) having the right to vote at the meeting;
- c) by any Member or Members present (in person or by proxy) representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the Members having the right to vote at the meeting; or
- d) by a Member or Members present (in person or by proxy) holding shares in the Company conferring the right to vote at the meeting being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than one-tenth of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right.

63. Taking of a poll

- a) Save as provided in paragraph (b) of this Article, a poll shall be taken in such manner as the Chairman directs and he may appoint scrutineers (who need not be Members) and fix a time and place for declaring the result of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

- b) A poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken either forthwith or at such time (not being more than thirty days after the poll is demanded) and place as the chairman of the meeting may direct. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll was demanded. If a Poll is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.
- c) No notice need be given of a poll not taken forthwith if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case at least seven Clear Days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.

64. Votes of Members

Votes may be given either personally or by proxy. Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares, on a show of hands every Member present in person and every proxy shall have one vote, so, however, that no individual shall have more than one vote, and on a poll every Member shall have one vote for every share carrying voting rights of which he is the Holder.

65. Chairman's casting vote

Where there is an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any other vote he may have.

66. Voting by joint Holders

Where there are joint Holders of a share, the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, in respect of such share shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint Holders; and for this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names of the Holders stand in the Register in respect of the share.

67. Voting by incapacitated Holders

A Member of unsound mind, or in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction (whether in the State or elsewhere) in matters concerning mental disorder, may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his committee, receiver, guardian or other person appointed by that court and any such committee, receiver, guardian or other person may vote by proxy on a show of hands or on a poll.

Evidence to the satisfaction of the Directors of the authority of the person claiming to exercise the right to vote shall be deposited at the Office or at such other place as is specified in accordance with these Articles for the deposit of instruments of proxy, not less than forty-eight hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the right to vote is to be exercised and in default the right to vote shall not be exercisable.

68. Default in payment of calls

Unless the Directors otherwise determine, no Member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting or any separate meeting of the Holders of any class of shares in the Company, either in person or by proxy, or to exercise any privilege as a Member in respect of any share held by him unless all moneys then payable by him in respect of that share have been paid.

69. Restriction of voting and other rights

- a) If at any time the Directors shall determine that a Specified Event (as defined in paragraph (g)) shall have occurred in relation to any share or shares the Directors may serve a notice to such effect on the Holder or Holders thereof. Upon the expiry of a period of 14 days following the service of any such notice (in these Articles referred to as a "Restriction Notice") and for so long as such Restriction Notice shall remain in force, no Holder or Holders of the share or shares specified in such Restriction Notice shall be entitled, ("the Restricted Shares") to attend or vote at any general meeting, either personally or by proxy; and the Directors shall where the Restricted Shares represent not less than 0.25 per cent. of the class of shares concerned, be entitled:

- i) to withhold payment of any dividend or other amount payable in respect of the Restricted Shares; and/or
 - ii) to refuse to register any transfer of the Restricted Shares (other than a transfer made as part of a sale to a bona fide third party unconnected with the Holder (including any such sale made through The Stock Exchange or an overseas exchange or by acceptance of a takeover offer) on receipt by the Directors of evidence satisfactory to them that such is the case) or any renunciation of or any allotment of new shares or debentures made in respect thereof.
- b) A Restriction Notice shall be cancelled by the Directors as soon as reasonably practicable, but in any event not later than seven days after the Holder or Holders concerned or any other relevant person shall have remedied the default by virtue of which the Specified Event shall have occurred, and a Restriction Notice given in respect of any Restricted Shares as a result of a Specified Event described in subparagraph (g)(ii) of this Article shall automatically be deemed to be cancelled on receipt by the Directors of evidence satisfactory to them that the Restricted Shares have been sold on a transfer to a bona fide third party unconnected with the Holder.

A Restriction Notice shall automatically cease to have effect in respect of any share transferred upon registration of the relevant transfer provided that a Restriction Notice shall not cease to have effect in respect of any transfer where no change in the beneficial ownership of the share shall occur and for this purpose it shall be assumed that no such change has occurred where a transfer form in respect of the share is presented for registration having been stamped at a reduced rate of stamp duty by virtue of the transferor or transferee claiming to be entitled to such reduced rate as a result of the transfer being one where no beneficial interest passes.

- c) The Directors shall cause a notation to be made in the Register against the name of any Holder or Holders in respect of whom a Restriction Notice shall have been served indicating the number of shares specified in such Restriction Notice and shall cause such notation to be deleted upon cancellation or cesser of such Restriction Notice.
- d) Where dividends or other payments are not paid as a result of restrictions imposed on Restricted Shares, such dividends or other payments shall accrue and shall be payable (without interest) upon the cancellation of the Restriction Notice.
- e) Any determination of the Directors and any notice served by them pursuant to the provisions of this Article shall be conclusive as against the Holder or Holders of any share and the validity of any notice served by the Directors in pursuance of this Article shall not be questioned by any person.
- f) If, while any Restriction Notice shall remain in force in respect of any Holder or Holders of any shares, such Holder or Holders shall be issued with any further shares as a result of such Holder or Holders not renouncing any allotment of shares made to him or them pursuant to a capitalisation issue under Articles 123 to 125, the Restriction Notice shall be deemed also to apply to such Holder or Holders in respect of such further shares on the same terms and conditions as were applicable to the said Holder or Holders immediately prior to such issue of further shares.
- g) For the purpose of these Articles the expression "Specified Event" in relation to any share shall mean either of the following events:-

- i) the failure by the Holder or Holders thereof to pay any call or instalment of a call in the manner and at the time appointed for payment thereof; or
- ii) the failure by the Holder thereof or any of the Holders thereof to comply, to the satisfaction of the Directors, with all or any of the terms of Section 81 of the 1990 Act, Article 5, Article 6 or Article 6B in respect of any notice or notices given to him or any of them thereunder.

70. Time for objection to voting

No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid. Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

71. Appointment of proxy

Every Member entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting may appoint a proxy to attend, speak and vote on his behalf. The appointment of a proxy shall be in writing in any usual form or in any other form which the Directors may approve and shall be executed by or on behalf of the appointor (or otherwise authenticated in such manner or form as the Directors may approve). Any signature on such appointment of a proxy need not be witnessed. A body corporate may execute a form of proxy under its common seal or under the hand of a duly authorised officer thereof. A proxy need not be a Member of the Company. No appointment of a proxy shall be valid after twelve months have elapsed from the date named in it as the date of its execution.

72. Bodies corporate acting by representatives at meetings

Any body corporate which is a Member of the Company may by resolution of its Directors or other governing body authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the Company or of any class of Members of the Company and the person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the body corporate which he represents as that body corporate could exercise if it were an individual Member of the Company.

73. Delivery and receipt of an appointment of proxy

The appointment of a proxy and any authority under which it is executed (or otherwise authenticated in a manner approved by the Directors) or a copy of such authority (or the information contained therein), certified notarially or in some other way authenticated in a manner approved by the Directors, shall be delivered to or lodged at the Office or (at the option of the Member) at such other place or places (if any) as may be specified for that purpose in or by way of note to the notice convening the meeting not less than forty-eight hours before the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or adjourned meeting or (in the case of a poll taken otherwise than at or on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting) for the taking of the poll at which it is to be used, and in default shall not be treated as valid. Provided that:

- a) in the case of a meeting which is adjourned to, or a poll which is to be taken on, a date which is less than seven days after the date of the meeting which was adjourned or at which the poll was demanded, it shall be sufficient if the appointment of a proxy and any such authority and certification thereof as aforesaid is delivered to or lodged with the Secretary at the commencement of the adjourned meeting or the taking of the poll;
- b) an appointment of a proxy relating to more than one meeting (including any adjournment thereof) having once been so delivered for the purposes of any meeting shall not require to be delivered again for the purposes of any subsequent meeting to which it relates;

- c) appointments of proxy may, provided they are received in legible form, be submitted by telefax to such telefax number as may be specified by the Secretary for such purpose provided that in the case of such telefax appointment of proxy, the Secretary shall have endorsed the same with a certificate stating that he is satisfied as to the authenticity thereof; and
- d) when two or more valid but differing appointments of a proxy are received in respect of the same shares for use at the same meeting, the one bearing the later date shall be treated as replacing and revoking the other; if the appointments are undated the last one received shall be treated as valid; and if the Company is unable to determine which was the last received, none shall be treated as valid, and a certificate endorsed by the Secretary stating that the appointment is valid or invalid, as the case may be, shall be conclusive for all purposes.

74. Crest Electronic Proxy

Without limiting the foregoing, in relation to any shares which are held in uncertificated form, the Directors may from time to time permit appointments of proxy to be made by means of an electronic communication in the form of a dematerialised instruction, and/or other instruction or notification, which is sent by means of the relevant system concerned and received by such participant in that system acting on behalf of the Company as the Directors may prescribe, in such form and subject to such terms and conditions as may from time to time be prescribed by the Directors (subject always to the facilities and requirements of the relevant system concerned); and may in a similar manner permit supplements to, or amendments or revocations of, any such dematerialised instruction and/or other instruction or notification to be made by like means. The Directors may in addition prescribe the method of determining the time at which any such dematerialised instruction (and/or other instruction or notification) is to be treated as received by the Company or such participant. The Directors may treat any such dematerialised instruction (and/or other instruction or notification) which purports to be or is expressed to be sent on behalf of a holder of a share as sufficient evidence of the authority of the person sending that instruction to send it on behalf of that holder. In this Article, the terms "relevant system" and "dematerialised instruction" shall have the meanings given in the Companies Act, 1990 (Uncertificated Securities) Regulations, 1996 (SI No. 68 of 1996).

For the purposes of Article 73, the place to which the dematerialised instruction (and/or other instruction or notification) should be delivered shall be such number, address (including any number or address used for the purpose of communication by way of electronic mail or other electronic communication) or identification number of a participant in the relevant system concerned as is notified by the Directors to the Members whether by way of note to the notice convening the meeting or otherwise.

75. Effect of proxy appointments

Delivery or lodging of an appointment of a proxy in respect of a meeting shall not preclude a Member from attending and voting at the meeting or at any adjournment thereof. The appointment of a proxy shall be valid, unless the contrary is stated therein, as well for any adjournment of the meeting as for the meeting to which it relates and shall be deemed to include the right to demand or join in demanding a poll.

76. Effect of revocation of a proxy or of an authorisation

A vote given or poll demanded in accordance with the terms of an appointment of a proxy or a resolution authorising a representative to act on behalf of a body corporate shall be valid notwithstanding the death or insanity of the principal or the revocation of the appointment of a proxy or of the authority under which the appointment of a proxy was executed or otherwise authenticated in a manner approved by the Directors (as the case may be) or of the resolution authorising the representative to act or transfer the share in respect of which the appointment of a proxy or the authorisation of the representative to act was given, provided that no intimation in writing of such death, insanity, revocation or transfer shall have been received by the Company at the Office or at such other address as may be specified in the notice of meeting or in the notes thereto at least one hour or such longer period as may be required by the Directors and so notified in the notice of meeting or in the notes thereto as aforesaid before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the appointment of a proxy is used or at which the representative acts.

The Directors may send, at the expense of the Company, by post or otherwise, to the Members appointments of a proxy (with or without stamped envelopes for their return) for use at any general meeting or at any class meeting, either in blank or nominating any one or more of the Directors or any other persons in the alternative. If for the purpose of any meeting invitations to appoint as proxy a person or one of a number of persons specified in the invitations are issued at the expense of the Company, such invitations shall be issued to all (and not to some only) of the Members entitled to be sent a notice of the meeting and to vote thereat by proxy. The accidental omission to issue the appointments of proxy herein referred to, or the non-receipt of any such invitation by any Member entitled to receive such invitation shall not invalidate the proceedings at any such meeting.

Part XII - Directors

77. Number of Directors

Unless otherwise determined by the Company in General Meeting the number of Directors shall not be more than twenty-five nor less than three. The continuing Directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body, provided that if the number of the Directors is reduced below the prescribed minimum the remaining Director or Directors shall appoint forthwith an additional Director or additional Directors to make up such minimum or shall convene a general meeting of the Company for the purpose of making such appointment. If there be no Director or Directors able or willing to act then any two shareholders may summon a general meeting for the purpose of appointing Directors. Any additional Director so appointed shall hold office (subject to the provisions of the Acts and these Articles) only until the conclusion of the annual general meeting of the Company next following such appointment unless he is re-elected during such meeting and he shall not retire by rotation at such meeting or be taken into account in determining the Directors who are to retire by rotation at such meeting.

78. Share qualification

A Director shall not require a share qualification.

79. Ordinary remuneration of Directors

The ordinary remuneration of the Directors shall not exceed €1,142,764 or such other amount as may be determined from time to time by an ordinary resolution of the Company and shall be divisible (unless such resolution shall provide otherwise) among the Directors as they may agree, or, failing agreement, equally, except that any Director who shall hold office for part only of the period in respect of which such remuneration is payable shall be entitled only to rank in such division for a proportion of the remuneration related to the period during which he has held office.

80. Special remuneration of Directors

Any Director who holds any executive office (including for this purpose the office of Chairman or Deputy Chairman) or who serves on any committee, or who otherwise performs services which in the opinion of the Directors are outside the scope of the ordinary duties of a Director, may be paid such extra remuneration by way of salary, commission or otherwise as the Directors may determine.

81. Expenses of Directors

The Directors may be paid all travelling, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by them in connection with their attendance at meetings of Directors or committees of Directors or general meetings or separate meetings of the Holders of any class of shares or of debentures of the Company or otherwise in connection with the discharge of their duties.

Part XIII - Powers of Directors

82. Directors' powers

Subject to the provisions of the Acts the Memorandum of Association of the Company and these Articles and to any directions by the Members given by ordinary resolution, not being inconsistent with these Articles or with the Acts, the business of the Company shall be managed by the Directors who may do all such acts and things and exercise all the powers of the Company as are not by the Acts or by these Articles required to be done or exercised by the Company in general meeting. No alteration of the Memorandum of Association of the Company or of these Articles and no such direction shall invalidate any prior act of the Directors which would have been valid if that alteration had not been made or that direction had not been given. The powers given by this Article shall not be limited by any special power given to the Directors by these Articles and a meeting of Directors at which a quorum is present may exercise all powers exercisable by the Directors.

83. Power to delegate

Without prejudice to the generality of the last preceding Article, the Directors may delegate (with power to sub- delegate) any of their powers to any Chief Executive or any other Director holding any other executive office and to any committee consisting of one or more Directors together with such other persons (if any) as may be appointed to such committee by the Directors provided that a majority of the members of each committee appointed by the Directors shall at all times consist of Directors and that no resolution of any such committee shall be effective unless a majority of the members of the committee present at the meeting at which it was passed are Directors. Insofar as any such power or discretion is delegated to a committee any reference in these Articles to the exercise by the Directors of the power or discretion so delegated shall be read and construed as if it were a reference to the exercise thereof by such a committee. Any such delegation may be made subject to any conditions the Directors may impose, and either collaterally with or to the exclusion of their own powers and may be revoked. Subject to any such conditions, the proceedings of a committee with two or more members shall be governed by the provisions of these Articles regulating the proceedings of Directors so far as they are capable of applying.

84. Appointment of attorneys

The Directors, from time to time and at any time by power of attorney under seal may appoint any company, firm or person or fluctuating body of persons, whether nominated directly or indirectly by the Directors, to be the attorney or attorneys of the Company for such purposes and with such powers, authorities and discretions (not exceeding those vested in or exercisable by the Directors under these Articles) and for such period and subject to such conditions as they may think fit. Any such power of attorney may contain such provisions for the protection of persons dealing with any such attorney as the Directors may think fit and may authorise any such attorney to sub-delegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions vested in him.

85. Local management

Without prejudice to the generality of Articles 82 and 83 the Directors may establish any committees, local boards or agencies for managing any of the affairs of the Company, either in the State or elsewhere, and may appoint any persons to be Members of such committees, local boards or agencies and may fix their remuneration and may delegate to any committee, local board or agent any of the powers, authorities and discretions vested in the Directors with power to sub-delegate and any such appointment or delegation may be made upon such terms and subject to such conditions as the Directors may think fit, and the Directors may remove any person so appointed, and may annul or vary any such delegation, but no person dealing in good faith with any such committee, local board or agency, without notice of any such removal, annulment or variation shall be affected thereby.

86. Borrowing powers

The Directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow or raise money and to mortgage or charge its undertaking, property, assets, and uncalled capital or any part thereof subject to Part III of the 1983 Act and to issue debentures, debenture stock and other securities whether outright or as collateral security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Company or of any third party, without any limitation as to amount.

87. Execution of negotiable instruments

All cheques, promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments and all receipts for moneys paid to the Company shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed or otherwise executed, as the case may be, by such person or persons and in such manner as the Directors shall determine from time to time by resolution.

88. Provision for employees

The Directors may exercise any power conferred by the Acts to make provision for the benefit of persons employed or formerly employed by the Company or any of its subsidiaries in connection with the cessation or the transfer to any person of the whole or any part of the undertaking of the Company or that subsidiary.

Part XIV - Appointment and Retirement of Directors

89. Retirement by rotation

- a) Each Director must retire not later than the third annual general meeting following his last appointment or re-appointment in general meeting.
- b) In any event, at each annual general meeting of the Company a minimum number of Directors are subject to retirement by rotation and that number includes any Director retiring under Article 89(a) but does not include any Director who wishes to retire and who does not wish to offer himself for re-appointment. The minimum number is one-third of the Directors for the time being subject to retirement by rotation (calculated as aforesaid and subject also to the provisions of Article 92) or if the said number of Directors is not divisible by three, the number which is nearest to and less than one-third. If there is only one director who is subject to retirement by rotation then he shall retire.
- c) The Directors, (including any Directors holding executive office pursuant to these Articles) to retire by rotation shall be those who have been longest in office since their last appointment or reappointment but as between persons who became or were last reappointed Directors on the same day those to retire shall be determined (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) by lot. For the purposes of this article 89(c), the Directors holding office on the date of the notice of the first annual general meeting after the merger offer dated 7 January, 1999 by or on behalf of the Company for all of the shares in Irish Life p.l.c. has become or has been declared unconditional in all respects shall all be deemed to have become Directors on the same day; and
- d) A Director who retires at an annual general meeting may be reappointed, if willing to act. If he is not reappointed (or deemed to be reappointed pursuant to these Articles) he shall retain office until the meeting appoints someone in his place or, if it does not do so, until the end of the meeting.

90. Deemed reappointment

If the Company, at the meeting at which a Director retires by rotation, does not fill the vacancy the retiring Director, if willing to act shall be deemed to have been re-appointed, unless at the meeting it is resolved not to fill the vacancy or a resolution for the reappointment of the Director is put to the meeting and lost.

91. Eligibility for appointment

No person other than a Director retiring by rotation shall be appointed a Director at any general meeting unless he is recommended by the Directors or, not less than seven nor more than thirty Clear Days before the date appointed for the meeting, notice executed by a Member qualified to vote at the meeting has been given to the Company of the intention to propose that person for appointment stating the particulars which would be required, if he were so appointed, to be included in the Company's register of Directors together with notice executed by that person of his willingness to be appointed. No Director shall be required to retire on account of age.

92. Appointment of additional Directors

Subject as aforesaid, the Company by ordinary resolution may appoint a person to be a Director either to fill a vacancy or as an additional Director and may also determine the rotation in which any additional Directors are to retire.

The Directors may appoint a person who is willing to act to be a Director, either to fill a vacancy or as an additional Director, provided that the appointment does not cause the number of Directors to exceed any number as fixed by or in accordance with these Articles as the maximum number of Directors. A Director so appointed shall hold office only until the next following annual general meeting and shall not be taken into account in determining the Directors who are to retire by rotation at the meeting. If not re-appointed at such annual general meeting, such Director shall vacate office at the conclusion thereof

Part XV - Disqualification and Removal of Directors

93. Disqualification of Directors

The office of a Director shall be vacated ipso facto if:-

- a) he ceases to be a Director by virtue of any provision of the Acts or he becomes prohibited by law from being a Director;

- c) in the opinion of a majority of his co-Directors, he becomes incapable by reason of mental disorder of discharging his duties as a Director;
- d) (not being a Director holding for a fixed term an executive office in his capacity as a Director) he resigns his office by notice to the Company;
- e) he is convicted of an indictable offence, unless the Directors otherwise determine;
- f) he shall have been absent for more than six consecutive months without permission of the Directors from meetings of the Directors held during that period and the Directors pass a resolution that by reason of such absence he has vacated office;
- g) he is removed from office by notice in writing served upon him signed by all his co-directors; if he holds an appointment to an executive office which thereby automatically determines, such removal shall be deemed an act of the Company and shall have effect without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of any contract of service between him and the Company.

94. Removal of Directors

The Company, by ordinary resolution of which extended notice has been given in accordance with the provisions of the Acts, may remove any Director before the expiry of his period of office notwithstanding anything in these Articles or in any agreement between the Company and such Director and may, if thought fit, by ordinary resolution appoint another Director in his stead. The person appointed shall be subject to retirement at the same time as if he had become a Director on the date on which the Director in whose place he is appointed was last appointed a Director. Nothing in this Article shall be taken as depriving a person removed hereunder of compensation or damages payable to him in respect of the termination of his appointment as Director or of any appointment terminating with that of Director.

Part XVI - Directors' Offices and Interests

95. Executive offices

- a) The Directors may appoint one or more of their body to the office of Chief Executive or to any other executive office under the Company (including, where considered appropriate, the office of the Chairman) on such terms and for such period as they may determine and, without prejudice to the terms of any contract entered into in any particular case, may revoke any such appointment at any time.
- b) A Director holding any such executive office shall receive such remuneration, whether in addition to or in substitution for his ordinary remuneration as a Director and whether by way of salary, commission, participation in profits or otherwise or partly in one way and partly in another, as the Directors may determine.
- c) The appointment of any Director to the office of Chairman or Chief Executive shall determine automatically if he ceases to be a Director but without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of any contract of service between him and the Company.
- d) The appointment of any Director to any other executive office shall not determine automatically if he ceases from any cause to be a Director unless the contract or resolution under which he holds office shall expressly state otherwise, in which event such determination shall be without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of any contract of service between him and the Company.
- e) A Director may hold any other office or place of profit under the Company (except that of Auditor) in conjunction with his office of Director, and may act in a professional capacity to the Company, on such terms as to remuneration and other-wise as the Directors shall arrange.

96. Disclosure of interests by Directors

A Director or shadow director of the Company who is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, interested in a contract or proposed contract with the Company shall comply with the provisions of Section 194 of the 1963 Act and those of the same Section (in the case of a shadow director, as applied by Section 27 of the 1990 Act) with regard to the disclosure of such interest by declaration.

97. Directors' interests

- a) A Director notwithstanding his office:-

- i) may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the Company or any subsidiary or Associated Company thereof or in which the Company or any subsidiary or Associated Company thereof is otherwise interested;

- b) No Director or intending Director shall be disqualified by his office from contracting with the Company either as vendor, purchaser or otherwise, nor shall any such contract or any contract or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the other Company in which any Director shall be in any way interested be avoided nor shall any Director so contracting or being so interested be liable to account to the Company for any profit realised by any such contract or arrangement by reason of such Director holding that office or of the fiduciary relationship thereby established. The nature of a Director's interest must be declared by him at the meeting of the Directors at which the question of entering into the contract or arrangement is first taken into consideration, or if the Director was not at the date of that meeting interested in the proposed contract or arrangement at the next meeting of the Directors held after he became so interested, and in a case where the Director becomes interested in a contract or arrangement after it is made at the first meeting of the Directors held after he becomes so interested.
- c) A copy of every declaration made and notice given under this Article shall be entered within three days after the making or giving thereof in a book kept for this purpose. Such book shall be open for inspection without charge by any Director, Secretary, Auditor or Member of the Company at the Office and shall be produced at every general meeting of the Company and at any meeting of the Directors if any Director so requests in sufficient time to enable the book to be available at the meeting.
- d) For the purposes of this Article:-
 - i) a general notice given to the Directors that a Director is to be regarded as having an interest of the nature and extent specified in the notice in any transaction or arrangement in which a specified person or class of persons is interested shall be deemed to be a disclosure that the Director has an interest in any such transaction of the nature and extent so specified; and
 - ii) an interest of which a Director has no knowledge and of which it is unreasonable to expect him to have knowledge shall not be treated as an interest of his.

98. Restriction on Directors' voting

- a) Save as otherwise provided by these Articles, a Director shall not vote at a meeting of the Directors or a committee of Directors on any resolution concerning a matter in which he has, directly or indirectly or together with any person or persons connected with him, an interest which is (to his knowledge) a material interest (otherwise than by virtue of his interests in shares or debentures or other securities of, or otherwise in or through, the Company) or a duty which conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the Company. A Director shall not be counted in the quorum present at a meeting in relation to any such resolution on which he is not entitled to vote.

- b) A Director shall be entitled (in the absence of some other material interest or duty which conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the Company than is indicated below) to vote (and be counted in the quorum) in respect of any resolutions concerning any of the following matters, namely:-
- i) the giving of any security, guarantee or indemnity to him in respect of money lent by him or any other person at the request of or for the benefit of the Company or any of its subsidiary companies or obligations incurred by him or any other person at the request of or for the benefit of the Company or any of its subsidiary companies;
 - ii) the giving of any security, guarantee or indemnity to a third party in respect of a debt or obligation of the Company or any of its subsidiary companies for which he himself has assumed responsibility in whole or in part and whether alone or jointly with others under a guarantee or indemnity or by the giving of security;
 - iii) any proposal concerning any offer of shares or debentures or other securities of or by the Company or any of its subsidiary companies for subscription, purchase or exchange in which offer he is or may be entitled to participate as a holder of shares, debentures, or other securities, or in which he is to be interested as a participant in the underwriting or sub-underwriting thereof;
 - iv) any proposal concerning any other company in which he is interested, directly or indirectly and whether as an officer or shareholder or otherwise howsoever, provided that he and any persons connected with him do not to his knowledge hold an interest in shares (as that term is used in Part IV, Chapter 2 of the 1990 Act) representing one per cent. or more of the issued shares of any class of such company or of the voting rights available to Members of such company (or of a third company through which his interest is derived) (any such interest being deemed for the purposes of this Article to be a material interest in all circumstances); or
 - v) any proposal concerning the adoption, modification or operation of a superannuation fund or retirement benefits scheme under which he may benefit and which has been approved by or is subject to and conditional upon approval for taxation purposes by the appropriate Revenue authorities and which does not award him any privilege or benefit not generally awarded to the employees to whom such fund or scheme relates;
 - vi) any proposal concerning the adoption, modification or operation of any scheme for enabling employees (including full time executive Directors) of the Company and/or any subsidiary thereof to acquire shares in the Company or any arrangement for the benefit of employees of the Company or any of its subsidiaries under which the Director benefits or may benefit and which does not award the Director any privilege or benefit not generally awarded to the employees to whom such scheme or arrangement relates;
 - vii) any proposal concerning insurance which the Company proposes to maintain or purchase for the benefit of the Directors or for the benefit of persons including the Directors.
- c) Where proposals are under consideration concerning the appointment (including fixing or varying the terms of appointment) of two or more Directors to offices or employments with the Company or any company in which the Company is interested, such proposals may be divided and considered in relation to each Director separately and in such case each of the Directors concerned (if not debarred from voting under sub-paragraph (b) (iv) of this Article) shall be entitled to vote (and be counted in the quorum) in respect of each resolution except that concerning his own appointment.

- d) If a question arises at a meeting of Directors or of a committee of Directors as to the materiality of a Director's interest or as to the right of any Director to vote and such question is not resolved by his voluntarily agreeing to abstain from voting, such question may be referred, before the conclusion of the meeting, to the chairman of the meeting and his ruling in relation to any Director other than himself shall be final and conclusive except in a case where the nature or extent of the interest of such Director has not been fully and fairly disclosed; provided that, if such question arises in relation to the chairman of the meeting, he shall temporarily vacate the chair.
- e) For the purposes of this Article, an interest of a person who is the spouse or a minor child of a Director shall be treated as an interest of the Director.

99. Entitlement to grant pensions

The Directors may provide benefits, whether by way of pensions, gratuities or otherwise, for any Director, former Director or other officer or former officer of the Company or to any person who holds or has held any employment with the Company or with any body corporate which is or has been a subsidiary or Associated Company of the Company or a predecessor in business of the Company or of any such subsidiary or Associated Company and to any Member of his family or any person who is or was dependent on him and may set up, establish, support, alter, maintain and continue any scheme for providing all or any such benefits and for such purposes any Director accordingly may be, become or remain a Member of, or rejoin, any scheme and receive or retain for his own benefit all benefits to which he may be or become entitled thereunder. The Directors may pay out of the funds of the Company any premiums, contributions or sums payable by the Company under the provisions of any such scheme in respect of any of the persons or class of persons above referred to who are or may be or become Members thereof.

Part XVII - Proceedings of Directors

- a) Subject to the provisions of these Articles, the Directors may regulate their proceedings as they think fit. A Director may, and the Secretary at the request of a Director shall, call a meeting of the Directors. Any Director may waive notice of any meeting and any such waiver may be retrospective. If the Directors so resolve, it shall not be necessary to give notice of a meeting of Directors to any Director who, being a resident of the State, is for the time being absent from the State.
- b) Notice of a meeting of the Directors shall be deemed to be duly given to a Director if it is given to him personally or by word of mouth or sent in writing by delivery, post, cable, telegram, telex, telefax, electronic mail or otherwise in electronic form, (whether as an electronic communication or otherwise) or by any other means of communication approved by the Directors to him at his last known address or any other address or number (including any address or number used for the purpose of communication by way of electronic mail or other electronic communication) given by him to the Company for this purpose.

101. Quorum for Directors' meetings

- a) The quorum for the transaction of the business of the Directors may be fixed by the Directors and unless so fixed at any other number shall be three.
- b) Any Director who ceases to be a Director at a meeting of the Directors may continue to be present and to act as a Director and to be counted in the quorum until the termination of the meeting provided no other Director objects and provided also that otherwise a quorum of Directors would not be present.
- c) The continuing Directors or a sole Director may act notwithstanding any vacancies in their number but if the number of Directors is less than the number fixed as the quorum, they may act only for the purpose of filling vacancies or of calling a general meeting.

102. Voting at Directors' meetings

- a) Questions arising at any meeting of Directors shall be decided by a majority of votes. Where there is an equality of votes, the chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.
- b) Subject as hereinafter provided, each Director present and voting shall have one vote and in addition to his own vote shall be entitled to one vote in respect of each other Director not present at the meeting who shall have authorised him in respect of such meeting to vote for such other director in his absence. Any such authority may relate generally to all meetings of the Directors or to any specified meeting or meetings and must be in writing and may be sent by delivery, post, cable, telegram, telex, telefax, or may be provided in electronic form (whether as an electronic communication or otherwise) or be sent by any other means of communication approved by the Directors and may bear a printed or facsimile signature of the Director giving such authority or may be otherwise authenticated in such manner as may be prescribed by the Directors. The authority must be delivered to the Secretary for filing prior to or must be produced at the first meeting at which a vote is to be cast pursuant thereto.

103. Telecommunication meetings

Any Director may participate in a meeting of the Directors or any committee of the Directors by means of conference telephone or other telecommunications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other speak and such participation in a meeting shall constitute presence in person at the meeting.

104. Chairman/joint chairmen of the board of Directors

The Directors may elect a chairman or joint chairmen, and if they think fit, a deputy chairman of their meetings and determine the period for which they are respectively to hold office and the date upon which their respective appointments are to take effect. If no chairman or joint chairmen is or are elected, or if at any meeting the chairman or, in the case of joint chairmen, one of the joint chairmen or the deputy chairman (if any) is not present and willing to act within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting, the Directors present may choose one of their number to act as chairman of the meeting.

105. Validity of acts of Directors

All acts done by any meeting of the Directors or of a committee of Directors or by any person acting as a Director, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any such Director or person acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified from holding office or had vacated office, shall be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a Director and had been entitled to vote.

106. Directors' resolutions or other documents in writing

A resolution or other document in writing signed (or otherwise authenticated in a manner determined by the Directors) by all the Directors entitled to receive notice of a meeting of Directors or of a committee of Directors shall be as valid as if it had been passed at a meeting of Directors or (as the case may be) a committee of Directors duly convened and held and may consist of several documents in the like form each signed (or otherwise authenticated as aforesaid, as the case may be) by one or more Directors, and such resolution or other document or documents when duly signed (or otherwise authenticated as aforesaid, as the case may be) may be delivered or transmitted (unless the Directors shall otherwise determine either generally or in any specific case) by facsimile transmission or some other similar means of transmitting the contents of documents or may be delivered or transmitted in electronic form, whether as an electronic communication or otherwise provided such manner of delivery or transmission has been approved by the Directors.

Part XVIII - The Secretary

107. Appointment of secretary

The Secretary shall be appointed by the Directors for such terms, at such remuneration and upon such conditions as they may think fit and any Secretary so appointed may be removed by them. Anything required or authorised by the Acts or these Articles to be done by or to the Secretary may be done by or to any assistant or acting Secretary or, if there is no assistant or acting Secretary readily available and capable of acting, by or to any officer or employee of the Company authorised generally or specially in that behalf by the Directors: Provided that any provision of the Acts or these Articles requiring or authorising a thing to be done by or to a Director and the Secretary shall not be satisfied by its being done by or to the same person acting both as a Director and as, or in the place of, the Secretary.

Part XIX - The Seal

108. Use of Seal

The Directors shall ensure that the Seal (including any official securities seal kept pursuant to the Acts) shall be used only by the authority of the Directors or of a committee authorised by the Directors.

109. Seal for use abroad

The Company may exercise the powers conferred by the Acts with regard to having an official seal for use abroad and such powers shall be vested in the Directors.

110. Signature of sealed instruments

- a) Subject as provided in paragraph (b) of this Article, every instrument to which the Seal shall be affixed shall, as part of the sealing process, be signed by at least one Director or other person duly authorised in that behalf by the Directors and by the Secretary or one of the persons authorised as aforesaid (who has not already signed) and, in favour of any purchaser or person dealing with the Company in good faith, such signatures shall be conclusive evidence of the fact that the Seal has been properly affixed.
- b) The Directors may by resolution determine, either generally or in any particular case, that in respect of certificates for shares or debentures or other securities of the Company, the signature of any Director or of the Secretary or other person authorised by the Directors as aforesaid forming part of the sealing process may be applied or effected by non-autographic means, or that such certificates shall bear no signatures, and in favour of any registered holder or other person acquiring any such shares or debentures or other securities in good faith a certificate executed in any of the modes of execution authorised herein shall be as valid and effective as if such certificate was issued under the Seal or the official securities seal kept pursuant to the Acts, as the case may be, of the Company pursuant to these Articles.

Part XX - Dividends and Reserves

111. Declaration of dividends

Subject to the provisions of the Acts, the Company by ordinary resolution may declare dividends in accordance with the respective rights of the Members, but no dividend shall exceed the amount recommended by the Directors and no dividend on the Ordinary Shares may be declared unless the dividend on the Sterling Preference Shares, the Euro Preference Shares and the Dollar Preference Shares most recently payable prior to the General Meeting at which the ordinary resolution is proposed shall have been paid in cash.

112. Scrip dividends

The Directors may, if authorised by an ordinary resolution of the Company, offer any holders of ordinary shares the right to elect to receive ordinary shares, credited as fully paid, instead of cash in respect of the whole (or some part, to be determined by the Directors) of any dividend specified by the ordinary resolution. The following provisions shall apply:

- a) An ordinary resolution may specify a particular dividend, or may specify all or any dividends declared within a specified period, but such period may not end later than the beginning of the annual general meeting next following the date of the meeting at which the ordinary resolution is passed.
- b) The entitlement of each holder of ordinary shares to new ordinary shares shall be such that the relevant value of the entitlement shall be as nearly as possible equal to (but not greater than) the cash amount (disregarding any tax credit) of the dividend that such holder elects to forgo. For this purpose, "relevant value" shall be calculated by reference to the average of the middle market quotations for the Company's ordinary shares on the Stock Exchange as derived from the Daily Official List, on the day on which the ordinary shares are first quoted "ex" the relevant dividend and the four subsequent dealing days, or in such manner as may be determined by or in accordance with the ordinary resolution. A certificate or report by the auditors as to the amount of the relevant value in respect of any dividend shall be conclusive evidence of that amount.
- c) On or as soon as practicable after announcing that it is to declare or recommend any dividend, the Directors, if they intend to offer an election in respect of that dividend, shall also announce that intention, and shall after determining the basis of allotment, if they decide to proceed with the offer, notify the holders of ordinary shares in writing of the right of election offered to them and specify the procedure to be followed and place at which, and the latest time by which elections must be lodged in order to be effective. Any election by a holder of ordinary shares shall be binding on every successor in title to the ordinary shares in respect of which the election is made.
- d) The Directors shall not proceed with any election unless the Company has sufficient unissued shares authorised for issue and sufficient reserves or funds that may be capitalised to give effect to it after the basis of allotment is determined.
- e) The Directors may exclude from any offer any holders of ordinary shares where the Directors believe that the making of the offer to them would or might involve the contravention of the laws of any territory or that for any other reason the offer should not be made to them.
- f) The dividend (or that part of the dividend in respect of which a right of election has been offered) shall not be payable on ordinary shares in respect of which an election has been made ("the elected ordinary shares") and instead additional ordinary shares shall be allotted to the holders of the elected ordinary shares on the basis of allotment calculated as stated. For such purpose the Directors shall capitalise, out of any amount for the time being standing to the credit of any reserve or fund (including the profit and loss account) whether or not the same is available for distribution as the Directors may determine, a sum equal to the aggregate nominal amount of the additional ordinary shares to be allotted on that basis and apply it in paying up in full the appropriate number of unissued ordinary shares for allotment and distribution to the holders of the elected ordinary shares on that basis and the provisions of Article 125 shall apply mutatis mutandis to any capitalisation made pursuant to this Article.
- g) The additional ordinary shares when allotted shall rank pari passu in all respects with the fully-paid ordinary shares then in issue except that they will not be entitled to participation in the relevant dividend.

113. Interim and fixed dividends

Subject to the provisions of the Acts, the Directors may declare and pay interim dividends if it appears to them that they are justified by the profits of the Company available for distribution; provided always that no interim dividend on the Ordinary Shares may be paid if the dividends on the Sterling Preference Shares, the Euro Preference Shares and the Dollar Preference Shares most recently payable prior to the date of the Directors' resolution to pay such interim dividend shall not have been paid in cash. If the share capital is divided into different classes, the Directors may declare and pay interim dividends on shares which confer deferred or non-preferred rights with regard to dividend as well as on shares which confer preferential rights with regard to dividend, but subject always to any restrictions for the time being in force (whether under these Articles, under the terms of issue of any shares or under any agreement to which the Company is a party, or otherwise) relating to the application, or the priority of application, of the Company's profits available for distribution or to the declaration or as the case may be the payment of dividends by the Company. Subject as aforesaid, the Directors may also pay at intervals settled by them any dividend payable at a fixed rate if it appears to them that the profits available for distribution justify the payment. Provided the Directors act in good faith they shall not incur any liability to the Holders of shares conferring preferred rights for any loss they may suffer by the lawful payment of an interim dividend on any shares having deferred or non-preferred rights.

114. Payment of dividends

- a) Except as otherwise provided by the rights attached to shares, all dividends shall be declared and paid according to the amounts paid up on the shares on which the dividend is paid. Subject as aforesaid, all dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid; but, if any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date, such share shall rank for dividend accordingly. For the purposes of this Article, no amount paid on a share in advance of calls shall be treated as paid on a share.
- b) If several persons are registered as joint Holders of any share, any one of them may give effectual receipts for any dividend or other moneys payable on or in respect of the share; and
- c) Any dividend may at the discretion of the Directors and at the sole risk of the person or persons entitled thereto be paid in any currency and in such manner as may be approved by the Directors from time to time.

115. Deductions from dividends

The Directors may deduct from any dividend or other moneys payable to any Member in respect of a share any moneys presently payable by him to the Company in respect of that share.

116. Dividends in specie

A general meeting declaring a dividend may direct, upon the recommendation of the Directors, that it shall be satisfied wholly or partly by the distribution of assets (and, in particular, of paid up shares, debentures or debenture stock of any other company or in any one or more of such ways) and the Directors shall give effect to such resolution. Where any difficulty arises in regard to the distribution, the Directors may settle the same as they think expedient and in particular may issue fractional certificates and fix the value for distribution of such specific assets or any part thereof in order to adjust the rights of all the parties and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any Members upon the footing of the value so fixed and may vest any such specific assets in trustees.

117. Payment of dividends by post or electronic funds transfer system

Any dividend or other moneys payable in respect of any share may be paid by cheque or warrant sent by post, at the risk of the person or persons entitled thereto, to the registered address of the Holder or, where there are joint Holders, to the registered address of that one of the joint Holders who is first named on the Register or to such person and to such address as the Holder or joint Holders may in writing direct. Every such cheque or warrant shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent and payment of the cheque or warrant shall be a good discharge to the Company. Any joint Holder or other person jointly entitled to a share as aforesaid may give receipts for any dividend or other moneys payable in respect of the share. Any such dividend or other monies payable in respect of any share may also be paid by any electronic funds transfer system, by bank transfer or by any other method approved by the Directors from time to time, to an account or address designated by the holder or joint holders, as the case may be. The debiting of the Company's account in respect of the appropriate amount shall be deemed to be a good discharge of the Company's obligations in respect of any payments by such methods. The Company shall have no responsibility for any such dividend or other monies lost or delayed in the course of any such transfer and any payment shall be sent at the risk of the person or persons entitled to the money represented thereby.

118. Dividends not to bear interest

No dividend or other moneys payable by the Company on or in respect of any shares shall bear interest against the Company unless otherwise provided by the rights attached to the shares.

119. Payment to Holders on a particular date

Any resolution declaring a dividend on shares of any class, whether a resolution of the Company in general meeting or a resolution of the Directors, may specify that the same may be payable to the persons registered as the Holders of such shares at the close of business on a particular date, notwithstanding that it may be a date prior to that on which the resolution is passed, and thereupon the dividend shall be payable to them in accordance with their respective holdings so registered, but without prejudice to the rights inter se of transferors and transferees of any such shares in respect of such dividend. The provisions of this Article shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to capitalisations to be effected in pursuance of these Articles.

120. Unclaimed dividends

If the Directors so resolve, any dividend which has remained unclaimed for twelve years from the date of its declaration shall be forfeited and cease to remain owing by the Company. The payment by the Directors of any unclaimed dividend or other moneys payable in respect of a share into a separate account shall not constitute the Company a trustee in respect thereof. Any dividend, interest or other sum payable which remains unclaimed for one year after having been declared may be invested or otherwise made use of by the Directors for the benefit of the Company until claimed.

121. Reserves

- a) Before recommending any dividend, whether preferential or otherwise, the Directors may carry to reserve out of the profits of the Company such sums as they think proper. All sums standing to reserve may be applied from time to time at the discretion of the Directors for any purpose to which the profits of the Company may be properly applied and at the like discretion may be either employed in the business of the Company or invested in such investments as the Directors may lawfully determine. The Directors may divide the reserve into such special funds as they think fit and may consolidate into one fund any special funds or any parts of any special funds into which the reserve may have been divided as they may lawfully determine. Any sum which the Directors may carry to reserve out of the unrealised profits of the Company shall not be mixed with any reserve to which profits available for distribution have been carried. The Directors may also carry forward, without placing the same to reserve, any profits which they may think it prudent not to divide.
- b) The Directors shall not set aside out of the profits and carry to any reserve fund referred to in paragraph (a) of this Article or carry forward in the manner described in the said paragraph any sum then required for payment of the dividend payable on any Sterling Preference Shares, Euro Preference Shares or Dollar Preference Shares.

- c) If at any time there shall be insufficient profits standing to the credit of the profit and loss account of the Company (or any of the other accounts or reserves of the Company available for distribution) for the payment of any such dividend on the Sterling Preference Shares, the Euro Preference Shares or the Dollar Preference Shares the Directors shall withdraw from any such reserve fund referred to in paragraph (a) of this Article such sums as may be required for the payment of any such dividend (and so that the Directors shall not require the consent of the Members in general meeting to any such withdrawal). Any sums so withdrawn (and any profits previously carried forward pursuant to paragraph (a) of this Article but subsequently required for the payment of any such dividend) may be applied in or towards payment of such dividends.

Part XXI - Accounts

122. Accounts

- a) The Directors shall cause to be kept proper books of account, whether in the form of documents or otherwise, that:
- i) correctly record and explain the transactions of the Company,
 - ii) will at any time enable the financial position of the Company to be determined with reasonable accuracy,
 - iii) will enable the Directors to ensure that any balance sheet, profit and loss account or income and expenditure account of the Company complies with the requirements of the Companies Acts, and
 - iv) will enable the accounts of the Company to be readily and properly audited.
- b) The books of account of the Company shall be kept on a continuous and consistent basis, that is to say, the entries therein shall be made in a timely manner and be consistent from one year to the next.
- c) Proper books shall not be deemed to be kept if there are not kept such books of account as comply with the Acts and as are necessary to give a true and fair view of the state of the Company's affairs and to explain its transactions.
- d) The books of account shall be kept at the Office or, subject to the provisions of the Acts, at such other place as the Directors think fit and shall be open at all reasonable times to the inspection of the Directors.
- e) In accordance with the provisions of the Acts, the Directors shall cause to be prepared and to be laid before the annual general meeting of the Company from time to time such profit and loss accounts, balance sheets, group accounts and reports as are required by the Acts to be prepared and laid before such meeting.
- f) A copy of every balance sheet (including every document required by law to be annexed thereto) which is to be laid before the annual general meeting of the Company together with a copy of the Directors' report and Auditors' report shall be sent, not less than twenty-one Clear Days before the date of the annual general meeting, to every person entitled under the provisions of the Acts to receive them; and the required number of copies of these documents shall be forwarded at the same time to the appropriate section of The Stock Exchange.
- g) Auditors shall be appointed and removed and their duties regulated in accordance with the Acts.

Part XXII - Capitalisation of Profits or Reserves

123. Capitalisation of profits and reserves

Without prejudice to the provisions of the Conversion Scheme as regards the grant of Free Shares and without prejudice to any powers conferred on the Directors by these Articles but subject to the provisions of Article 2(b)(F), Article 2(c)(F) and Article 2(d)(F), the Company in general meeting may resolve, upon the recommendation of the Directors, that any sum for the time being standing to the credit of any of the Company's reserves (including any capital redemption reserve fund or share premium account) or to the credit of the profit and loss account be capitalised and applied on behalf of the Members who would have been entitled to receive that sum if it had been distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions either in or towards paying up amounts for the time being unpaid on any shares held by them respectively, or in paying up in full unissued shares or debentures of the Company of a nominal amount equal to the sum capitalised (such shares or debentures to be allotted and distributed credited as fully paid up to and amongst such Holders in the proportions aforesaid) or partly in one way and partly in another, so, however, that the only purposes for which such sum standing to the credit of the capital redemption reserve fund or the share premium account shall be applied shall be those permitted by the Acts.

124. Capitalisation and use of non-distributable profits and reserves

Without prejudice to any powers conferred on the Directors as aforesaid, the Company in general meeting may resolve, on the recommendation of the Directors, that it is desirable to capitalise any part of the amount for the time being standing to the credit of any of the Company's reserve accounts or to the credit of the profit and loss account which is not available for distribution by applying such sum in paying up in full unissued shares to be allotted as fully paid bonus shares to those Members of the Company who would have been entitled to that sum if it were distributable and had been distributed by way of dividend (and in the same proportions) and the Directors shall give effect to such resolution.

125. Implementation or capitalisation issues

Whenever such a resolution is passed in pursuance of either of the two immediately preceding Articles the Directors shall make all appropriations and applications of the undivided profits resolved to be capitalised thereby and all allotments and issues of fully paid shares or debentures, if any, and generally shall do all acts and things required to give effect thereto with full power to the Directors to make such provisions as they shall think fit for the case of shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions (and, in particular, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, either to disregard such fractions or to sell the shares or debentures represented by such fractions and distribute the net proceeds of such sale to and for the benefit of the Company or to and for the benefit of the Members otherwise entitled to such fractions in due proportions) and to authorise any person to enter on behalf of all the Members concerned into an agreement with the Company providing for the allotment to them respectively, credited as fully paid up, of any further shares or debentures to which they may become entitled on such capitalisation or, as the case may require, for the payment up by the application thereto of their respective proportions of the profits resolved to be capitalised of the amounts remaining unpaid on their existing shares and any agreement made under such authority shall be binding on all such Members.

Part XXIII - Notices

126. Notices in writing

Any notice to be given, served or delivered pursuant to these Articles shall be in writing.

127. Service of notices

- a) A notice or document (including a share certificate) to be given, served or delivered in pursuance of these Articles or otherwise may be given to, served on or delivered to any Member by the Company:

- i) by handing same to him or his authorised agent;
 - ii) by leaving the same at his registered address;
 - iii) by sending the same by the post in a pre-paid cover addressed to him at his registered address; or
 - iv) by delivering or making the same available in electronic form, whether as an electronic communication or otherwise subject to and in accordance with the provisions of these Articles.
- b) Where a notice or document is given, served or delivered pursuant to sub paragraph (a)(i) or (ii) of this Article, the giving, service or delivery thereof shall be deemed to have been effected at the time the same was handed to the Member or his authorised agent, or left at his registered address (as the case may be).
- c) Where a notice or document is given, served or delivered pursuant to sub-paragraph (a)(iii) of this Article, the giving, service or delivery thereof shall be deemed to have been effected at the expiration of twenty-four hours after the cover containing it was posted. In proving service or delivery it shall be sufficient to prove that such cover was properly addressed, stamped and posted.
- d) Where a notice, document or other information is given, served or delivered in electronic form whether as an electronic communication or otherwise pursuant to sub-paragraph a) iv) of this Article, it shall be treated as having been given, served or delivered:
 - (i) if given, served or delivered by electronic mail, at the time it was sent; or
 - (ii) where any such notice or document is given, served or delivered by being made available or displayed on a website, when the recipient received or is deemed to have received notice of the fact that the notice, document or other information was available on the website.
- e) Every legal personal representative, committee, receiver, curator bonis or other legal curator, assignee in bankruptcy or liquidator of a Member shall be bound by a notice given as aforesaid if sent to the last registered address of such Member (or if otherwise delivered or made available in accordance with this Article), notwithstanding that the Company may have notice of the death, lunacy, bankruptcy, liquidation or disability of such Member.
- f) Where a Member has elected to receive notices or other documents in electronic form, whether as an electronic communication or otherwise, the Company may notwithstanding such election and without giving advance notice to the Member, provide such notices or documents in accordance with any of the methods allowed for in sub-paragraphs a)i), ii) or iii) of this Article and such provision shall satisfy the Company's obligations in this regard.
- g) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-paragraphs (a) (i) and (ii) of this Article, if at any time by reason of:
 - i) the suspension or curtailment of postal services within the State, the Company is unable effectively to convene a general meeting by notice sent through the post; or
 - ii) the occurrence of any event or thing as a consequence of which the Company is unable effectively to convene a general meeting by means of an electronic communication; a general meeting may be convened by a notice advertised on the same day in at least one leading national daily newspaper published in the State (and one national daily newspaper published in the United Kingdom) and such notice shall be deemed to have been duly served on or delivered to all Members entitled thereto at noon on the day on which the said advertisement or advertisements shall appear. In any such case the Company shall send confirmatory copies of the notice through the post to those Members whose registered addresses are outside the State (if or to the extent that in the opinion of the Directors it is practical so to do) or are in areas of the State unaffected by such suspension or curtailment of postal services and if at least ninety-six hours prior to the time appointed for the holding of the meeting the posting of notices to Members in the State, or any part thereof which was previously affected, has become practical in the opinion of the Directors, the Directors shall send forthwith confirmatory copies of the notice by post or electronic means, whether as an electronic communication or otherwise (as the case may be) to such Members. The accidental omission to give any such confirmatory copy of a notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of any such confirmatory copy by, any person entitled to receive the same shall not invalidate the proceedings at the meeting.

- h) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Article the Company shall not be obliged to take account of or make any investigations as to the existence of any suspension or curtailment of postal services within or in relation to all or any part of any jurisdiction or area other than the State and, in the case of sub-paragraph g)ii) of this Article, the Company shall not be obliged to carry out any tests or investigations into the causes of or circumstances surrounding the event or thing in question as a consequence of which the Company shall be unable effectively to convene a general meeting by means of an electronic communication other than such tests and investigations as may be used from time to time by the Company or its agents in relation to the use or operation of any systems for electronic communication.

128. Notices to members

Any Member whose registered address is not within the State, the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man and who gives to the Company an address within any of the above territories at which notices may be served upon him shall be entitled to have notices served upon him at that address but unless he does so shall not be entitled to receive any notice from the Company.

129. Service on joint Holders

A notice may be given by the Company to the joint Holders of a share by giving the notice to the joint Holder whose name stands first in the Register in respect of the share and notice so given shall be sufficient notice to all the joint Holders.

130. Service on transfer or transmission of shares

- a) Every person who becomes entitled to a share shall before his name is entered in the Register in respect of the share, be bound by any notice in respect of that share which has been duly given to a person from whom he derives his title provided that the provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to any notice served under Article 69 unless, under the provisions of Article 69 b), it is a notice which continues to have effect notwithstanding the registration of a transfer of the shares to which it relates.
- b) Without prejudice to the provisions of these Articles allowing a meeting to be convened by newspaper advertisement a notice may be given by the Company to the persons entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member by sending or delivering it, in any manner authorised by these Articles for the giving of notice to a Member, addressed to them at the address, if any, supplied by them for that purpose. Until such an address has been supplied, a notice may be given in any manner in which it might have been given if the death or bankruptcy had not occurred.

131. Signature to notices

The signature to any notice to be given by the Company may be in writing or printed.

132. Deemed receipt of notices

A Member present, either in person or by proxy, at any meeting of the Company or the Holders of any class of shares in the Company shall be deemed to have received notice of the meeting and, where requisite, of the purposes for which it was called.

133. Use of Electronic Communication

- a) Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, whenever any person (including without limitation the Company, a Director, the Secretary, any officer of the Company, a Member or any other person) is required or permitted by these Articles or otherwise to give or receive information in writing such information may be given or received in electronic form, whether as an electronic communication or otherwise in such manner or form and subject to such terms, conditions or restrictions as the Directors may determine or approve from time to time in their absolute discretion.
- b) The Company and its Directors, Secretary or officers shall not be compelled to receive or to send electronic communications or information in electronic form under these Articles or otherwise until such time as the Directors shall have advised (pursuant to any terms and conditions of electronic communication or otherwise) the recipient or giver (as the case may be) in writing of the manner, form and restrictions (if any) by which such information may be sent or received.

Part XXIV - Winding up

134. Distribution on winding up

If the Company shall be wound up and the assets available for distribution among the Members as such shall be insufficient to repay the whole of the paid up or credited as paid up share capital, such assets shall be distributed so that, as nearly as may be, the losses shall be borne by the Members in proportion to the capital paid up or credited as paid up at the commencement of the winding up on the shares held by them respectively. And if in a winding up the assets available for distribution among the Members shall be more than sufficient to repay the whole of the share capital paid up or credited as paid up at the commencement of the winding up, the excess shall be distributed among the Members in proportion to the capital at the commencement of the winding up paid up or credited as paid up on the said shares held by them respectively. Provided that this Article shall not affect the rights of the Holders of shares issued upon special terms and conditions.

135. Distribution in specie

If the Company is wound up, the liquidator, with the sanction of a special resolution of the Company and any other sanction required by the Acts, may divide among the Members in specie or kind the whole or any part of the assets of the Company (whether they shall consist of property of the same kind or not) and, for such purpose, may value any assets and determine how the division shall be carried out as between the Members or different classes of Members. The liquidator, with the like sanction, may vest the whole or any part of such assets in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of the contributories as, with the like sanction, he determines, but so that no Member shall be compelled to accept any assets upon which there is a liability.

Part XXV - Miscellaneous

136. Minutes of meetings

The Directors shall cause minutes to be made of the following matters, namely:-

- a) of all appointments of officers and committees made by the Directors and of their salary or remuneration;
- b) of the names of Directors present at every meeting of the Directors and of the names of any Directors and of all other Members thereof present at every meeting of any committee appointed by the Directors; and
- c) of all resolutions and proceedings of all meetings of the Company and of the Holders of any class of shares in the Company and of the Directors and of committees appointed by the Directors.

Any such minute as aforesaid, if purporting to be signed by the Chairman of the meeting at which the proceedings were had, or by the Chairman of the next succeeding meeting, shall be receivable as prima facie evidence of the matters stated in such minute without any further proof.

137. Inspection and secrecy

The Directors shall determine from time to time whether and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions or regulations the accounts and books of the Company or any of them shall be open to the inspection of Members, not being Directors, and no Member (not being a Director) shall have any right of inspecting any account or book or document of the Company except as conferred by the Acts or authorised by the Directors or by the Company in general meeting. No Member shall be entitled to require discovery of or any information respecting any detail of the Company's trading, or any matter which is or may be in the nature of a trade secret, mystery of trade, or secret process which may relate to the conduct of the business of the Company and which in the opinion of the Directors it would be inexpedient in the interests of the Members of the Company to communicate to the public.

138. Secrecy

Every Officer of the Company or other person employed in the business of the Company shall, when required by the Directors before entering upon his duties, sign a declaration pledging himself to observe a strict secrecy respecting all transactions of the Company with its customers and the state of accounts with individuals, and in matters relating thereto and shall by such declaration pledge himself not to reveal any of the matters which may come to his knowledge in the discharge of his duties, except when required to do so by the Directors or by any general meeting or by a court of law or by the person to whom such matters relate, and except so far as may be necessary in order to comply with any of the provisions of these Articles.

139. Destruction of records

The Company shall be entitled to destroy all instruments of transfer which have been registered at any time after the expiration of six years from the date of registration thereof, all notifications of change of address at any time after the expiration of two years from the date of recording thereof and all share certificates and dividend mandates which have been cancelled or ceased to have effect at any time after the expiration of one year from the date of such cancellation or cessation. It shall be presumed conclusively in favour of the Company that every entry in the Register purporting to have been made on the basis of an instrument of transfer or other document so destroyed was duly and properly made and every instrument duly and properly registered and every share certificate so destroyed was a valid and effective document duly and properly cancelled and every other document hereinbefore mentioned so destroyed was a valid and effective document in accordance with the recorded particulars thereof in the books or records of the Company. Provided always that:

- a) the provision aforesaid shall apply only to the destruction of a document in good faith and without notice of any claim (regardless of the parties thereto) to which the document might be relevant;

- b) nothing herein contained shall be construed as imposing upon the Company any liability in respect of the destruction of any document earlier than as aforesaid or in any other circumstances which would not attach to the Company in the absence of this Article; and
- c) references herein to the destruction of any document include references to the disposal thereof in any manner.

140. Untraced shareholders

The Company may sell any shares in the Company on behalf of a Holder, or person entitled by transmission to, the shares, if:-

- a) the shares have been in issue throughout the qualifying period and at least three cash dividends have become payable on the shares during the qualifying period;
- b) no cash dividend payable on the shares has either been claimed by presentation to the paying bank of the relative cheque or warrant or been satisfied by the crediting of any account which the Holder has with the Company, whether in the sole name of such Holder or jointly with another person or persons, or by the transfer of funds to a bank account designated by the Holder of, or person entitled by transmission to, the shares at any time during the relevant period;
- c) the Company has not at any time during the relevant period received, so far as the Company at the end of the relevant period is then aware, any communication from the Holder of, or person entitled by transmission to, the shares;
- d) the Company has caused advertisements giving notice of its intention to sell the shares to be published in a leading daily newspaper with a national circulation in the State and another in a newspaper circulating in the area of the address shown in the register of the Holder of, or person entitled by transmission to, the untraced shares, and (in either such case) a period of three months has elapsed from the date of publication of the advertisement; and
- e) the Company has given notice to the relevant department of The Stock Exchange of its intention to make the sale.

For the purposes of this Article:

"the qualifying period" means the period of twelve years immediately preceding the date of publication of the relevant advertisements referred to in sub-paragraph (d) above;

"the relevant period" means the period beginning at the commencement of the qualifying period and ending on the date when all the requirements of sub-paragraphs (a) to (e) above have been satisfied.

For the purposes of sub-paragraph (c) above, a statutory declaration that the declarant is a director of the Company or the secretary and that the Company was not aware at the end of the relevant period of having at any time during the relevant period received any communication from the Holder of, or person entitled by transmission to, the shares shall be conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the shares.

If, after the publication of the advertisement referred to in sub-paragraph (d) above but before the Company has become entitled to sell the shares pursuant to this Article, the requirements of sub-paragraph (b) or (c) above cease to be satisfied, the Company may nevertheless sell those shares after the requirements of sub-paragraphs (a) to (e) above have been satisfied afresh in relation to them.

If during any relevant period further shares have been issued in right of those held at the beginning of that relevant period or of any previously so issued during that relevant period and all the requirements of sub- paragraphs (b) to (e) above have been satisfied in regard to the further shares, the Company may also sell the further shares.

The manner, timing and terms of any sale of shares pursuant to this Article (including but not limited to the price or prices at which the same is made) shall be such as the Board determines, based upon advice from such bankers, brokers or other persons as the Board considers appropriate which are consulted by it for the purposes, to be reasonably practicable having regard to all the circumstances including the number of shares to be disposed of and the requirement that the disposal be made without delay; and the Board shall not be liable to any person for any of the consequences of reliance on such advice.

To give effect to any sale of shares pursuant to this Article the Board may authorise some person to transfer the shares in question and may enter the name of the transferee in respect of the transferred shares in the register notwithstanding the absence of any share certificate being lodged in respect thereof and may issue a new certificate to the transferee and an instrument of transfer executed by that person shall be as effective as if it had been executed by the Holder of, or person entitled by transmission to, the shares. The purchaser shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase moneys nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings relating to the sale.

The Company shall account to the Holder or other person entitled to such shares for the net proceeds of such sale by carrying all moneys in respect thereof to a separate account which shall be a permanent debt of the Company and the Company shall be deemed to be a debtor and not a trustee in respect thereof for such Holder or other person. Moneys carried to such separate account may be either employed in the business of the Company or invested in such investments as the Directors may think fit, from time to time.

141. Indemnity

Subject to the provisions of and so far as may be permitted by the Acts, every Director, Chief Executive, Auditor, Secretary or other officer of the Company shall be entitled to be indemnified by the Company against all costs, charges, losses, expenses, and liabilities incurred by him in the execution and discharge of his duties or in relation thereto including any liability incurred by him in defending any proceedings, civil or criminal, which relate to anything done or omitted or alleged to have been done or omitted by him as an officer or employee of the Company and in which judgment is given in his favour (or the proceedings are otherwise disposed of without any finding or admission of any material breach of duty on his part) or in which he is acquitted or in connection with any application under any statute for relief from liability in respect of any such act or omission in which relief is granted to him by the Court.

Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the Directors shall, so long as they act reasonably and in good faith, be under no liability to the Company or any other person for failing to treat any share as a Relevant Share or any person as a Relevant Person in accordance with the provisions of Article 5, Article 6 and/or Article 69 and neither shall any of the Directors be liable to the Company or any other person if, having acted reasonably and in good faith, they determined erroneously that any share is a Relevant Share or any person is a Relevant Person or, on the basis of such determination or resolution of the Directors they perform or exercise (or purport to perform or exercise) any of their duties, powers, rights or discretions under Article 5, Article 6 and/or Article 69 in relation to such share.

To the extent permitted by law, the Directors may arrange insurance cover at the cost of the Company in respect of any liability, loss or expenditure incurred by any Director, officer or the Auditors in relation to anything done or alleged to have been done or omitted to be done by him or them as Director, officer or Auditors.

142. SCHEME OF ARRANGEMENT

- (a) In this Article 142, the Scheme means the scheme of arrangement between the Company and the holders of the Existing Shares dated 20 November 2009 under Section 201 of the 1963 Act in its original form or with or subject to any modification, addition or condition approved or imposed by the High Court and expressions defined in the Scheme and (if not so defined) in the document containing the explanatory statement circulated with the Scheme under Section 202 of the Companies Act 1963 shall have the same meanings in this Article.

- (b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, if the Company allots and issues any ordinary shares (other than to Irish Life & Permanent Group Holdings p.l.c. (NEW ILP) or its nominees) on or after the adoption of this Article and prior to the Scheme Record Time, such ordinary shares shall be allotted and issued subject to the terms of the Scheme and the holder or holders of those ordinary shares shall be bound by the Scheme accordingly.
- (c) No right of pre-emption granted to any ordinary shareholder or any other person whatsoever whether under these Articles or otherwise shall apply to the allotment or issue of ordinary shares pursuant to the Scheme.
- (d) If any new ordinary shares are allotted or issued to any person (a new member) (other than under the Scheme or to NEW ILP or any subsidiary undertaking of NEW ILP or any person acting on behalf of NEW ILP or any subsidiary undertaking of NEW ILP) on or after the Scheme Record Time, NEW ILP may, provided the Scheme has become effective, have such shares transferred to NEW ILP and/or its nominee(s) in consideration of and conditional on the issue by NEW ILP to the new member of the corresponding number of ordinary shares in NEW ILP to which the new member would have been entitled under the terms of the Scheme had such shares transferred to NEW ILP under the Scheme.
- (e) In order to give effect to any such transfer required by this Article 142, the Company may appoint any person to execute and deliver a form of transfer on behalf of the new member in favour of NEW ILP and/or its nominee(s). Before the registration of NEW ILP and/or its nominee(s) as a holder of any share to be transferred under this Article 142, NEW ILP can appoint a person nominated by the Directors to act as attorney on behalf of any holder of that share (or any interest in it), exercising any rights attached to it or receiving any distribution or other benefit accruing or payable in respect of it and any holders of that share must exercise all rights attaching to it in accordance with the directions of NEW ILP.”
